Notes on the response form

1. The contribution you offer in (A) will be used for the church's planning, but it is not a binding promise. It should represent what you expect to be able to give, but if your circumstances change you can simply give less (or more!).
2. I greatly prefer contributions through a standing order, if you can manage it. This reduces the amount of administrative work dealing with cash, and (probably more important) makes you less likely to forget. You can change your standing order at any time.
3. Remember that even if you make your donations on a one-off basis, I can still recover tax provided we know they come from you, so please do complete (C). The easiest way to tell us that a donation comes from you is to put it in a Gift Aid envelope, available in the pews in church.

Please return this form, together with bank mandate and/or Gift Aid Declaration, to:
