

St Andrew's Hall

In addition to regular events listed on our website www.standrews-hall.co.uk and on the notice board at the back of church, the Hall will be hosting a jumble sale and raffle for STRADA (the stroke re-hab. group who meet with us every Friday) on Saturday 30 October from 2-5pm. 'Jumble' doesn't do justice to much of what's on offer! Support for the event would be much appreciated. For more information about this and other Hall events and bookings, please contact Eleanor on 306150 or via eleanor@standrews-hall.co.uk.

A History of St Andrew's in 100 objects: the rood screen

For at least 500 years the chancel was separated from the nave by a wooden screen (called the 'rood screen' because above it was the beam upon which the giant rood (or cross) was mounted). The point of such screens was to mark out a separate space while allowing those outside to look in. At eye level there would have been effectively a row of glassless windows through which worshippers in the nave could see the 'performance' of the mass in the chancel. The bottom level would have been solid and decorated with pictures of the saints, so that those coming forward to receive communion would come under/via the cross (rood) and would be entering the whole company of Heaven in the communion of saints.

The screen was removed for restoration in the late 1870s but was never reinstalled and was subsequently lost. Only one fragment remains.

If you would like a copy of the notice sheet e-mailed to you, please send an e-mail request to the Parish Administrator. A large print version is available at the back of the Church

24th October 2010

WELCOME to St Andrew's today.

At 10am we are continuing our series A History of St Andrew's in 100 Objects.

Children are invited to the Hall for Junior Church. In the main hall there is a crèche facility where you can either stay with your young children or leave them and come back to church.

Do join us for coffee or tea in the Hall after the service.

This evening 'Message in the Movies' returns, 5pm ('til 8.15 max.) in the Hall.

We'll follow a slightly different format from previous 'movies' evenings, this time watching a whole film, following that with a simple supper and discussion, and ending with night prayer. This month's film will be Groundhog Day (PG): all adults and young people welcome.

There will be no evening service in church.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

*"How lovely is your dwelling-place, O Lord of hosts! My soul has a desire and longing to enter the courts of the Lord."

(ending in the church), 3.30-5pm

Coming up at St Andrew's....

St Andrews Junior Church groups Seekers & Why Group will be packing up Christmas Shoeboxes again this year on 14th November (Remembrance Sunday). All donations gratefully received – shoe boxes, wrapping paper, toys & toiletries, education supplies, hats, gloves, scarves and also £2.50 P&P for each box. There is a link below with more details, but all items must be new. No chocolate I'm afraid! And no liquids. Donations to Helen Druiff or bring to the Hall on the morning. www.operationchristmaschild.org.uk/what-to-pack

The next Thinking our Faith evening will be on Wednesday 3rd November at Chesterton House, 7.30pm. The speaker will be our Rural Dean, the Revd Dr John Binns. He is an expert on the church in Ethiopia—whose expression of Christianity has very early roots but is quite different from our own. His title is Why worship? A conversation with Ethiopian Christianity.

On Sunday 7 November is our annual All Soulside Time to Remember service, at 4pm (no Evensong). All are welcome to come and remember loved ones; names are read out, candles lit, flowers laid. And there's a cup of tea afterwards to share with others. Special invitations go out to those we know who have been bereaved in the last few years.

On Remembrance Sunday (14 November) the 10am morning service will not include Communion—and is intended to be welcoming to those who may not be regular churchgoers. In the evening, the season of remembering concludes with a Eucharist at which New Voices will be singing Fauré's Requiem.

St Andrew's News

Wanted – minimal organiser! The pub group meets on a Friday every other month. Anything from four to a dozen people attend – simply for a drink and conversation. There is no agenda or programme, so the organisation is minimal, but it would be good if someone were willing to minimally organise it (i.e. set dates and make sure it's publicised)! Please have a word with Mick Lumsden or Nick.

Azul Wasi Cycle Ride

Ten of us took part – we were so lucky that the weather was so good. So far we have raised an amazing £650. This will cover over a month's food and running costs. Thank you for all your support. Fran is still involved there and working with Alcides to help to get it more sustainable for the future. The regular donations that have been set up by members of St Andrew's congregation are a great way forward, giving some consistent long-term and income to cover their costs. If you would be interested in doing this (for any amount from £5 a month upwards), please contact Mary Pountain or Simon Peyton Jones. Photos and news are on the church website.
