Spending time as a couple is one of the most significant things you can do for your relationship. On Saturday 4 June, St James's Centre, Gerrards Cross (about 1 1/2 hours from Cambridge) are hosting a special 'Day together' seminar for any couple... time away to listen, laugh, learn more about each other and to talk and reconnect whatever stage of life you are in. Whether you're married or not, whether your marriage is solid or needs a good 'MOT', this is a day for every couple. Alasdair and Olivia Coles will be speakers at the event. The day is offered at the bargain price of £15 per couple as this is part of a trial of new material and a 'new look' day. In return we'd value your feedback to help us with publicity and to refine the seminar for others in the future. For more info contact Jane Josten Tel 01753 885576, email: janefamilylife@googlemail.com

Jimmy's Night Shelter currently have vacancies for part-time and locum Project Workers to take responsibility for Night Shelter shifts. Contact claire@jimmyscambridge.org.uk for more details.

If you would like a copy of the notice sheet e-mailed to you, please send an e-mail request to the Parish Administrator. A large print version is available at the back of the Church

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

22 May 2011

WELCOME to St Andrew's today.

If there seem to be fewer people around today that's because we have a large contingent (70+) at the Parish Weekend in Ditchingham. But services continue as normal today and Junior Church will be meeting in the Hall at 10am.

Chimes distributors may notice there are no copies this week; we are waiting on the Chesterton Festival programmes and will be collating everything on Wednesday at 2pm. Can you spare us an hour or two? No great skill required; cups of tea and stimulating company is provided though...

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling-places."'

This week

The next Hard Questions will be held at the Gardoms' house (17a, Millington Road, CB3 9HW) at 7.30pm on Friday. The question is: "How does prayer deliver?" so come along and participate! To plan catering, please contact Chris Lamaison, 361780 or cal@camres.co.uk.

Next Sunday at 10am the plan now is to have Parish Communion in church and Junior Church in the Hall, joining the congregation as usual for Communion—we are short-staffed that day, hence the change! NB also that the 4th Sunday choir will be singing at this service (rehearsal at 9.15am).

Next Sunday evening is Informal Worship (see below).. The theme of the service will be 'Waiting on the Spirit'. Come along for an evening of praise, worship and reflection.

St Andrew's News & Notices

We have several adults preparing for their Confirmation on Thursday 9 June, 7.30pm, at St George's. Do make a note of the date and come and support them as they renew their baptism promises, seek the confirming gift of the Spirit and begin their full membership of the Church. (NB the service will be conducted by Bishop Stephen—his first visit to our neighbourhood.)

The 2011/2012 giving envelopes are now available at the back of the Church.

One 'L' of a Lunch by the River—12 June - is now fully booked—collect your tickets from Cynthia.

Calling all musicians and singers - Informal Worship needs you! The next Informal Worship service, on the evening of 29 May is rather short of both musicians and singers. Would you be willing to get involved in this either by playing an instrument or helping lead us in our sung worship? If you are, please contact Olivia (oliviacoles29@gmail.com). We also need someone to look after the technical side of Informal Worship services. No great experience needed, just the ability to work PowerPoint! Again, contact Olivia if you would be willing to help with this.

The Annual General Meeting of the Friends of St Andrew's will take place on Ascension Day, Thursday 2 June. The meeting will be held after Evensong which will be at 7.30pm. The Friends raise money, mainly from annual subscriptions, to help keep the fabric and furnishings of the church in good order and we always welcome new members. If you would like to join, please speak to me or Patricia Abrey. There is no fixed amount for the subscription. Give as much as you can.

John Reynolds, Chairman.

Book Group: The July book is Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime. Some free copies are available from Mick Lumsden (350550 or mick@mplumsden.plus.com).

The next Silver Threads is Helen Druiff speaking on Modern Apprenticeship on 14 June. There is no meeting in July. The event after that will be on Tuesday 9 August, 2-4pm. Would you like to go on a riverboat cruise on the Georgina, with a cream tea? Cost £15 (or £12 for Silver Threads). All welcome. Please contact Dorothy Peyton Jones on 523485 to express an interest.

ST ANDREW'S RAZZAMATAZZ ROBOTS HOLIDAY CLUB!! Are you looking for some children's activities during the summer holidays? Well, look no further as an enthusiastic team from St. Andrew's are about to start planning it's third holiday club! It will take place in the Hall from 22-26 August, 9.45am-12.30noon. It is open to all children aged 5-11yrs. Activities include: bible discovery, crafts, music, drama, games, sport outside, creative prayer, discussions and a lot of FUN!! We provide a snack and drinks each morning and all for £5 per child for the week. If you are interested, you need to fill in a form for your child, which are at the back of the church or at the Hall. For any more information contact : Caroline Lamaison, 361780. If there is anyone who is interested in helping with the holiday week please let us know, we would be delighted to hear from you. THANK YOU!!

Development Project News

Our consideration of the organ continues. For the whole of June we are arranging for an electronic organ to be installed by Allen Organs. This will give us all the opportunity to see (or, more importantly, hear!) what such an instrument sounds like. It will be used across the range of our services. At the same time, we will also be meeting with traditional pipe organ builders to discuss the possibilities for renewing our current organ and giving it a new lease of life (looking at a new location at the east end of the north aisle).

Other News & Notices

This evening, 6.30pm, at Wesley Methodist Church, Cambridge, Chaplaincy to People at Work are holding a Commissioning Service for all their workplace chaplains. Please come if you would like to show your support for ministry to those at work. The preacher will be Rev Dr Malcolm Torry from the Greenwich Peninsula Chaplaincy Team in London. For more details, ask Dorothy Peyton Jones.

Quiet Days at Lode, led by Tricia Troughton, will continue on second Saturdays in June and July. Each quiet day stands alone, but they also have a common theme, providing an opportunity to reflect and pray on the following subjects: 'From conflict to creativity', 'From chains to freedom', 'From loneliness to solitude'; and to enjoy the peace and tranquillity of this lovely village—just a few miles from Cambridge. The days run from 10am until 4pm. A simple lunch is provided. Cost £15 per day with a £5 discount if you book all
