Quiet Days at Lode, led by Tricia Troughton, will continue on second Saturday in July. Each quiet day stands alone, but they also have a common theme, providing an opportunity to reflect and pray on the following subjects: 'From conflict to creativity', 'From chains to freedom', 'From loneliness to solitude'; and to enjoy the peace and tranquillity of this lovely village—just a few miles from Cambridge. The days run from 10am until 4pm. A simple lunch is provided. Cost £15 per day. For further details and booking form, see www.lodechapel.org.uk. Tricia can be contacted on 521786, patricia.troughton@ntlworld.com.

Women in the Episcopate: Road shows making a presentation with questions and discussions at St Mary's Church, Ely on 13 June, Bar Hill Church on 16 June and Wisbech St Peter & St Paul's Church. 7 July, cll commencing at 7.30pm.

The North Area Committee (covering Chesterton, Arbury and King's Hedges) brings the city council to our locality. It is chaired by Ian Nimmo-Smith and he would be grateful if people responded to a community consultation (Your CB4) that asks two simple questions—please take one of the postcards from the back of church. There will be a community event on 18 June when you can drop in from 10am-2pm to see how others have responded and to help shape local priorities.

If you would like a copy of the notice sheet e-mailed to you, please send an e-mail request to the Parish Administrator.

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

12 June 2011

WELCOME to St Andrew's today.

Today we celebrate the feast of Pentecost when the first Christians were anointed with power from on high and were sent out to proclaim the new message of Jesus—his life, death and resurrection.

Five of our number were (baptised and) confirmed by Bishop Stephen on Thursday and today we welcome them to the Lord's table alongside the children who will be receiving their first Communion. Congratulations to all of them and we welcome them as they share with us in the life-giving body and blood of Christ. The children will be returning from Junior Church in time to help prepare the holy table.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body... and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.'

This week

As well as the First Communions in the morning and the 'L of a lunch', at 4pm there is a United Pentecost Celebration at Arbury Community Centre. It will be a celebration of the international nature of the church and those of different tongues are invited to come and say John 3.16 in their own language. Could that be you?! If the weather is good, we will use the grassy area outside the Community centre during the bring and share tea (NB finger food with an international slant especially welcome), so please bring some food along if you can and simple garden games like garden noughts and crosses if you have them.

Pentecost Praise: tonight at 7.30pm, Ely Cathedral, led by Bishops Stephen and David. See poster at back of church.

Silver Threads is on Tuesday: Helen Druiff will be speaking on Modern Apprenticeship.

There is no meeting in July. The event after that will be on Tuesday 9 August, 2-4pm. Would you like to go on a riverboat cruise on the Georgina, with a cream tea? Cost £15 (or £12 for Silver Threads). All welcome. Please contact Dorothy Peyton Jones on 523485 to express an interest.

Chesterton Forum: Is Multiculturalism Finished?

A presentation and discussion led by Dr Jeff Bailey, Chairman in Residence of
The Centre for Social Justice
This Thursday (16 June)
7.30pm in St Andrew's Hall

Next Sunday

The 10am service (Family Service for Trinity Sunday) will be followed by drinks on the rec (no coffee this week) plus a Father's Day small edible treat for some.... There will then be an all-star fathers/gentlemen-and-daughters vs mothers/ladies –and-sons rounders match. Then we'll all collapse for a picnic lunch—so don't forget to bring your own picnic. Children—bring your dads along.

The 6.30pm evening service will be an Iona Healing Eucharist. After which....

A Little Light Music: Sarah Peyton Jones and friends from the choir are putting on a concert at St Andrew's on Sunday 19 June at 7.45pm (until 9pm). The programme will be varied and entertaining, ranging from Bach to musical theatre. Entrance is free. There will be refreshments and a retiring collection in aid of Sarah's trip to Peru next year, where she will be teaching English as a volunteer in a church-run school.

24-26 June

Please note that this will soon be upon us. Do support the various events and we need volunteers to help.

The flower group have been planning hard for the 'walk through time' theme and the church will look fabulous. It will be open 2.30-5pm on the Saturday and 3-6pm on the Sunday. It needs two stewards per hour. Please sign up on the list at the back or see Margaret Robins.

Calling all bakers, buyers, servers and washer-uppers: the Hall will be hosting teas on Saturday 25 June from 1-5pm as part of Chesterton Festival. Would you be able to lend a hand? If so, Eleanor (306150) or Sheila Merrick (510456) would love to hear from you. Thanks in advance!

Volunteers needed!

Someone (not necessarily a PCC member) willing to serve as a member of Deanery Synod, which meets in various places two or three times a year. (Mike Dawson is the other rep—plus the licensed clergy—but the PCC now needs to nominate another person.)

And someone interested in the PA system to join the team of sound technicians. Please contact Margaret Robins, 573511, Margaret.robins191@gmail.com.

Development Project News

The DAC (Diocesan Advisory Committee) will be visiting us on Thursday to discuss our development plans. Effectively it is this body that will eventually give any 'planning permission' so this is an important meeting.

The electronic organ will be with us until the end of the month. We will be experimenting with the position of the speakers. Comments from the congregation are welcome, and there will be a full opportunity to comment after the month is up.
