ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

4 September 2011

WELCOME to St Andrew's today.

At the All-age Communion today we will be looking forward to Back-to-Church Sunday (25 September). You will find invitation cards in the pews or at the back of church—the idea is to pass on the invitation to a friend and keep the prayer card for your self.

Next Sunday we will be keeping as our Friends' Festival. We will be welcoming back one or two friends who have moved on from St Andrew's and would be pleased to hear news from other former church members. We will also be commissioning leaders and children of Junior Church which restarts next week.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.'

On Saturday, 10am-12 noon, it's the Friends' Coffee Morning at Ursula Sainsbury's, 1 Leys Road. There will be cakes, stalls and things to amuse and occupy children—do come along.

Saturday is also of the Historic Churches' Trust Cycle Ride. The Moir family and a few others will be sallying forth from the coffee morning on a cycle trip that will take in the new cycle route along the guided busway and, if all goes well, Histon/Impington, Oakington and Girton. Would you like to join them? We'll take a picnic lunch and will be operating at a child-friendly pace. Half the sponsorship money will come back to St Andrew's for our development project. Please sponsor them today!

St Andrew's News & Notices

It is with great sadness that we report the death of Mark Blackburn, who was churchwarden here in the early 1990s. After a long battle with cancer Mark died peacefully at home on Thursday surrounded by his family—to whom we extend our deepest sympathies.

Calendars for the next four months are now available. Electoral roll members and others who have asked or agreed to be on the database can pick up theirs in an addressed envelope at the back of church (near the south door)—please do pick it up. It also contains the latest address list and a mission update. Others can pick up loose copies of the calendar and mission update from the back of church.

Book Group. The next book is "The Hare with the Amber Eyes" by Edmund de Waal which will be discussed from 8pm on Wednesday 21 September at 42 Hawthorn Way - the home of Ewa Allen (367351). All welcome. The book for November is "John" by Niall Williams. It has been chosen to link in to the theme for the autumn. If you'd like a copy of the book ordered (£2.80 second hand) contact Mick Lumsden on 350550 or mick@mplumsden.plus.com.

The Junior Youth Choir is seeking new members We need more young singers to maintain the strong musical tradition of St Andrew's Church. The children in the Youth Choir learn how to sing, develop their understanding of music and the part it plays in worship. They work hard and have a lot of fun, especially on the Youth Choir holiday each July. Practices are on Fridays during term-time, 6.10–7.15pm. Services are 1st and 3rd Sundays of each month. Age 7+. Speak to Chris or Mary Pountain.

Back to Church Sunday - 25 Sept

"One man said he'd never been to church in his life before. He said he'd enjoyed the service and would come again!"

"We saw 3 people re-commit their lives to Christ."

News from St Andrew's Hall

We're really pleased to announce that two new groups will be making substantial use of the Hall this term: City Life Church will be with us for two Sunday afternoons per month starting on 11 September, and the Food4Food Community Cafe will run over Tuesday to Friday lunchtimes from 4 October. The groups are booked in for 3- and 6-month trial periods respectively, and we're excited at the possibilities for collaboration their presence will bring. They'd both welcome links with St Andrew's folk, so feel free to introduce yourselves! A drop-in table tennis group has started at the Hall running every Friday from 3-5pm. All adults are welcome
