11 September 2011

WELCOME to St Andrew's today, especially if you are a visitor and/or are here for the Friends' Festival. At our 10am service today we'll be thinking of the past vicars of St Andrew's and their families (sneaking in another of the 100 objects—the Vicars' board). Thanks are due to Ursula and all who helped with the coffee morning yesterday. If you see some wilting legs in church this morning that may be because they were spinning round on a bicycle yesterday (see overleaf)....

Junior Church restarts today and we are enormously grateful to our great team of leaders—we will be praying for them, and the children, at the end of the 10am service.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

'Peter came and said to Jesus, 'Lord, ... how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?'

St Andrew's News & Notices

It is not too late to sponsor those who completed the Historic Churches Cycle Ride yesterday. Half the money will come back to St Andrew's for our development project. Thank you for your support.

The Alpha Supper was a happy occasion last week. We now look forward to the 9-week course beginning on Wednesday 5 October (7.15-9.30pm) in the Hall. We would value some practical help: (a) can you put a poster up? (do take one from the back of church) (b) Could you prepare one of the meals? Simple recipes can be provided (the Alpha cookbook is very useful!). Offers to Margaret Robins please (when she's back from holiday or email margaret.robins191@gmail.com.)

The Harvest Supper will be on Saturday 1 October, 6.30-8pm in the Hall. There will be a sign up sheet for those coming. Come and enjoy delicious food and a chance to hear more about the work of USPG. We will also be looking for people to cook a recipe for 6-8 people (probably South American).

Calendars for the next four months are now available. Electoral roll members and others who have asked or agreed to be on the database can pick up theirs in an addressed envelope at the back of church (near the south door)—please do pick it up. It also contains the latest address list and a mission update. Others can pick up loose copies of the calendar and mission update from the back of church.

Book Group. The next book is "The Hare with the Amber Eyes" by Edmund de Waal which will be discussed from 8pm on Wednesday 21 September at 42 Hawthorn Way - the home of Ewa Allen (367351). All welcome. The book for November is "John" by Niall Williams. It has been chosen to link in to the theme for the autumn. If you'd like a copy of the book ordered (£2.80 second hand) contact Mick Lumsden on 350550 or mick@mplumsden.plus.com.

The Junior Youth Choir is seeking new members We need more young singers to maintain the strong musical tradition of St Andrew's Church. The children in the Youth Choir learn how to sing, develop their understanding of music and the part it plays in worship. They work hard and have a lot of fun, especially on the Youth Choir holiday each July. Practices are on Fridays during term-time, 6.10-7.15pm. Services are 1st and 3rd Sundays of each month. Age 7+. Speak to Chris or Mary Pountain.

News from St Andrew's Hall

We're really pleased to announce that two new groups will be making substantial use of the Hall this term: City Life Church will be with us for two Sunday afternoons per month starting on 11 September, and the Food4Food Community Cafe will run over Tuesday to Friday lunchtimes from 4 October. The groups are booked in for 3- and 6-month trial periods respectively, and we're excited at the possibilities for collaboration their presence will bring. They'd both welcome links with St Andrew's folk, so feel free to introduce yourselves! A drop-in table tennis group has started at the Hall running every Friday
