

Photograph Competition - 'Your Take on Chesterton' with a caption

This year's subject for the photograph competition is 'Your Take on Chesterton' with a caption, this subject covers a large and varied range of activities, views, comments or impression of Chesterton. The photograph must have been taken by the named entrant, and not entered into any other competition. No professional photographers are allowed to enter. Each entrant may enter up to six (6) photographs in the competition. The photograph can be taken by 35mm or digital camera and printed in black and white or colour. The print must be no bigger than 25cmx20cm (10"x8"). If you do not have a camera, but would like to enter, we have a number of digital cameras that you could use, contact Brownsfield on how you can borrow one of these cameras. For more information email tenantsnews@btinternet.com or see the forms at the back of church.

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

5 February 2012

WELCOME to St Andrew's today.

At our 10am service there will be a special activity for younger children during the sermon and prayers— in the chancel.

Meanwhile prayers for healing will now be at the base of the tower (behind the font) during Communion.

Do join us as usual for coffee after the service—this morning it will be in church.

The text of last week's civic service sermon is available on the website (address above).

Next week will be our Stewardship Sunday. We will be updating you on the church's financial situation, the budget for this year, and the challenges before us.... There will be letters for church members in the pigeonholes at the back of church.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you."

Please pray for:

- Among the sick, housebound or recovering: Alison Hughes, Diana Blackwood Murray, Barry Eaden, Betty and Gordon Borley, Supatra Adler, Julie Parfitt, Janet Wheeler and Shirley Passow
- Our PCC as it revises the Mission Action Plan and seeks to discern God's will for us in the coming months and years
- Our care of the churchyard (with the council; we are meeting on Monday to discuss this year's mowing and repairs of the wall)
- Ryan Neill, being baptised today

Coming up... this week

Have you ever wondered why we sing 'Holy, holy, holy' at every Communion service? Or how similar our service is (and isn't) to the Roman Catholic mass? Or why the order in the Prayer Book is rather different? Or who invented the Peace? Nick will attempt to answer such questions on Wednesday when we will be studying The Eucharist: a history, 7.30 for 8pm (Room 2, Hall).

The next Hard Questions will be at 17 Sherlock Road, 7.30 –10.00pm, on Friday. Our HQ is "What does it mean to give 'All for Jesus?'" so come along and participate! Please let Chris Lamaison know if you're coming (361780).

Coming up... next Sunday

Do you feel like a recent arrival at St Andrew's? Newcomers to the parish are invited to a bring and share lunch at the home of the Peyton Jones' next Sunday. Please contact Dorothy for details dorothy@peytonjones.org or 523485.

Sidespeople do a fantastic job welcoming the congregation week by week and helping the worship run smoothly. You are invited to Drinks and Nibbles (also next Sunday) at 5.30pm in church—a chance for us to say thank you to you and to answer any questions about the role. NB: We will need new sidespeople to add to our number in April.

Lent Groups: We are planning to set up some small groups to meet weekly in people's homes during Lent and follow a simple 5-week course on prayer. There'll be an opportunity in the next couple of weeks to let us know if you'd like to join a group, but first we need to know if you would be willing to host or help lead one. Don't be put off—you don't need to be an expert in praying or to live in a palace. More info from Eleanor on 306150 or eleanor@standrews-hall.co.uk.

St Andrew's News & Notices

If you have a ready smile and would like to welcome people into church, then perhaps you might like to consider becoming a sidesperson. Please contact Margaret Robins.

Bull Marmalade is now on sale — £3 a jar, in aid of the Army Benevolent Fund.

A reminder to Chesterton Chimes distributors that there are a number of bundles at the back of church awaiting distribution.

The next Book Group will be on Tuesday 20 March when we will be looking at Sisters of Sinai by Janet Soskice.

A CD of the music from the Carol Service is available, as well as a CD of the Senior Youth Choir's Garland of Carols Concert. They put on a wonderful concert which includes some unusual Christmas music as well as some well-known items. We thought that a donation of £5 per CD towards the Youth Choir holiday fund would be appropriate. If you would like either of these, please let Mary Pountain know, preferably by the end of January. mary.pountain@gmail.com or 311055.

Kirsty Corrigan would very much appreciate a lift to church for 10am services from Storey's House. Please contact Dorothy Peyton Jones for details.

News from Azul Wasi

We have decided to raise the amount of money we send for the food to £550 a month, as food prices have gone up and the exchange rate has not been so favourable in the past year. St Andrew's has also donated wellington boots as a Christmas present for all the boys—they are very grateful. If you would like to make a small but regular donation towards the food costs at Azul Wasi, please speak to Simon Peyton Jones or Mary Pountain.

Other News & Notices

Camtrust (a small charity based in Impington, offering educational opportunities to adults with disabilities - www.camtrust.co.uk) has been selected as one of 25 charities to benefit from the Cambridge Building Society's Cash for the Community £10,000 handout. If you are a Cambridge News reader, please can you support Camtrust by collecting the tokens printed in the Cambridge News between 30 January and 24 February. The amount of money Camtrust will receive depends on the number of tokens that are donated for Camtrust, so do please pass this on to other News readers. The tokens can be handed in to any CBS branch by 2 March in an envelope labelled Camtrust. Thank you.
