19 February 2012

WELCOME to St Andrew's.

Richard Thomas, our Ridley ordinand, will be preaching at the Family Service this morning. After the service there will be refreshments in the Hall, all-age football on the rec. and, at 11.15am, a short (15-20 minutes) service of Holy Communion in the chancel.

The season of Lent begins this week. Please read this pewsheet carefully as there are lots of things on offer to help you keep this season prayerfully and reflectively: Lent groups on prayer, Friday prayers at the cross for healing, a mini-pilgrimage around Cambridge with Bishop David, special Sunday evening services (at the earlier time of 6pm).

Would regular attenders please collect their stewardship letters from the pigeonholes at the back if you did not do so last week. They are in alphabetical order. And please respond when you can.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

St Andrew's News & Notices

We are sorry to report that the following have died this week: Shirley Passow (Jeanne Henderson's sister), Kay Lake (Richard Lake's mother) and Joyce Reed. But we rejoice in the Christian Hope and are glad that they are now free from pain and frailty.

If you have a ready smile and would like to welcome people into church, then perhaps you might like to consider becoming a sidesperson. Please contact Margaret Robins.

Bull Marmalade is now on sale — £3 a jar, in aid of the Army Benevolent Fund.

Kirsty Corrigan would very much appreciate a lift to church for 10am services from Storey's House. Please contact Dorothy Peyton Jones for details.

A Lenten pilgrimage

Bishop David invites you to join him on a mini-pilgrimage this Lent, to walk, talk and listen to one another, God and God's world around us, and to let our hearts be warmed as they were for the first disciples on the Emmaus Road.

The day (Monday 5 March) will begin with a short service at St Botolph's (Trumpington St/Silver St) using a meditation from Bishop David's Listening in Lent booklet. We will then walk to a second church, talking as we go about how we Imagine the Future, in response to Bishop Stephen's booklet of that name.

After a second service and talk (at St Martin's, Suez Rd), we will set off back here to St Andrew's for lunch and a third service, before our third walk and a final service and talk at Great St Mary's.

Please bring your own food: drinks will be provided. The day will begin at 10am and finish around 4pm. You are welcome to join in part or all of the day.

N.B. Bishop David is leading this mini-pilgrimage six times around the diocese during Lent, so if you can't make this one, you can join him on another...
