11 March 2012

WELCOME to St Andrew's.

This morning there is a choice of services at 10am—a Sung Eucharist in the Church (with New Voices) and an Informal Eucharist for all ages in the Hall (with Junior Church groups and an adult group for the sermon slot).

Our series of reflective evening services for Lent continues at 6pm this evening. Tricia will be leading a meditation on the theme 'be calm' and we will finish by singing the traditional late evening service of Compline.

Next week is Mothering Sunday. Children and fathers—your service is required! Come to church on Saturday at 10am please!

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.'

Coming up... this week

Silver Threads meets on Tuesday. Flori will speak about being a Time for God volunteer.

The North Cambridge Council of Churches are sponsoring an evening on Thursday (7-9pm) at the Manor School called a Good Childhood Conversation. The Children's Society will be facilitating a discussion about the issues faced by children and young people in our area today. Find out from the surveys what children and young people think about their lives. Representatives will be present from many of those organisations who work with children in our area, but it is vital that members of the community come along to engage in the conversation too whether they have children or not. This is an issue that affects all of us and it would be good to have as many there as can make it.

This Friday (and throughout Lent) at 12 noon (to 12.30pm) will be Prayers for Healing at the Cross, when members of the healing team will be available as we gather around the cross and pray for our broken world.

On Saturday we need to prepare for Mothering Sunday. Fathers and children are invited to come along at 10am to prepare the flowers that will be distributed during the Family Service on Sunday.

Coming up... this month

The next Book Group will be on Tuesday 20 March when we will be looking at Sisters of Sinai by Janet Soskice.

St Andrew's News & Notices

Sarah Abrey is preparing for her Confirmation on Sunday 24 June. It's not too late to be (baptised and) confirmed alongside her. Do have a word with Nick or Dorothy if you are thinking about it.

We are looking forward to welcoming the Orchestre d'harmonie du Cap Lihou (all 53 of them!) to perform a concert on Friday 20 April. We are providing bed and breakfast to all of them on that night. Thanks to those who have already offered, but we do need some more of you—please contact the parish office (see Margaret Partridge's details overleaf) if you might be able to help.

Would regular attenders please collect their stewardship letters from the pigeonholes at the back if you did not do so last week. They are in alphabetical order. And please respond when you can. If you have opened a version without Simon's notes these are available at the back by the pigeonholes.

Sidespeople do a fantastic job welcoming the congregation week by week and helping the worship run smoothly. We will need new sidespeople to add to our number in April. Please speak to one of the churchwardens if you are willing to be part of this team.

Kirsty Corrigan would very much appreciate a lift to church for 10am services from Storey's House. Please contact Dorothy Peyton Jones for details.
