ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

8 & 15 April 2012

WELCOME to St Andrew's today and a very Happy Easter to you.

Envelopes for electoral roll members are available in the pigeonholes at the back of church. They include a copy of our annual report for 2011, a calendar of church events for the summer, and news about our mission & giving projects. If you are not a member of this church you can join the roll by speaking to Margaret Partridge or filling out one of the forms at the back of church. Don't forget that our annual church meeting will be on Sunday 22 April (see inside for details).

Also that weekend (Friday 20 April) is our special concert with the Orchestre d'Harmonie du Cap Lihou. Tickets will be available this morning.

Leaflets about the parish weekend are available today: please take one.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

'Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him."

Coming up... this month

The concert given by Orchestre d'Harmonie du Cap Lihou will be on Friday 20 April at 7.45pm. It will include ballet music by Manuel de Falla, Leo Delibes and Dmitri Shostakovich as well as film score music by Vangelis and John Williams. Tickets are £10 (£7 concessions), available from the parish office or the Hall.

Help is required to serve refreshments to members of the orchestra and hosts after the concert on 20 April. If you are able to help please speak to John Reynolds.

It is the church's annual meeting (the annual parochial church meeting—APCM) on Sunday 22 April. The business part of the meeting, including the election of churchwardens and church council (PCC) members, will happen after the 10am service and there will be a bring & share lunch in the Hall. (Offers of food to Patricia Abrey please!) Could you serve on the PCC? This year we need EIGHT new members.

Coming up... this month

This year's parish weekend won't be at Belsey Bridge but at the even more attractive venue of St Andrew's Hall! We are having a parish weekend at home on the weekend of 18-20 May. We will start on the Friday evening with a meal and welcoming activity; our main sessions will be on the Saturday morning; there will be a walk and workshops in the afternoon and entertainment in the evening. The theme of the weekend will be the Eucharist—which we will be exploring in different ways and some of our children will be preparing for their first Communion on the Sunday.

St Andrew's News & Notices

In case you haven't noticed yet, we now have bike racks at the north-east end of the churchyard (just inside the wall opposite the Vie development). Please use them!

We would value pictures from St Andrew's activities in 2011—both for the slideshow at the annual meeting and for the annual report. Please send photos to vicar@standrews-chesterton.org.

Thanks to those 24 of you who have returned your reply slips after this year's stewardship mailing. A total of £1,376 extra has been promised to date, so that's just another £2,200 to go... Have you replied yet?

Sad to say that Flori won't be with us for ever and is already well over half way through her stay, but the good news is that we will be having a Flori mark 2, also from Germany, but this time it's a he not a she. Adrian Layer comes from near Heidelberg, is 18 years old, enjoys ballroom dancing and plays the ukulele.

Sidespeople do a fantastic job welcoming the congregation week by week and helping the worship run smoothly. We will need new sidespeople to add to our number in April. Please speak to one of the churchwardens if you are willing to be part of this team.

The last dozen or so of marmalade will be on sale on Easter Day at 10am.
