ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

1 July 2012

WELCOME to St Andrew's today, and particularly to Matthew Buckley as he is baptised and Olivia Blydenstein as she is baptised and receives her first communion. Welcome, too, to their families and friends joining us this morning. Robin Newton—who was baptised and confirmed last weekend—will also be sharing in communion with us today for the first time.

The Chesterton Festival continues this afternoon. The church will be open from 2pm and teas will be served from 3pm. Then join us for 'Songs of Praise' (with CSK Brass) at 4pm—with hymns chosen by members of the congregation (some will be explaining their choices).

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'The LORD does not see as mortals see; they look on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart.'

Deliverers and counter-outers of Chesterton News are invited to a drop-in 'thank you' high tea at St Andrew's Hall between 4pm and 5.30pm on Thursday 5 July. If you plan to come, please could you let Eleanor or Nick know asap so we can cater accordingly? Thank you!

Coming up... this month

On Tuesday 10 July, there will not be a meeting of Silver Threads at St Andrew's Hall. Instead, we will be going to Wimpole Hall. We have booked the Dial-a-Ride bus, which can take 15 people, and we may be able to provide additional transport. Admission to the hall and garden is £9.30, garden only £3.90, free if you are a National Trust member. There is a nice tearoom, shop, plants for sale and second-hand books. We will leave St Andrew's Hall at 1.30pm and leave Wimpole at 4.15pm. We are happy for anyone to come as long as we have space. Please contact Dorothy Peyton Jones on 523485 or dorothy@peytonjones.org for information.

Rave in the Nave is on Friday 13 July in Ely Cathedral, 7.15 til midnight. This is for age 12+. <http://www.raveinthenave.org>. The event offers young people and church youth groups, a chance to invite their friends to a church event that offers worship and fellowship in a fun atmosphere and relevant to their age and culture. It gives churches the opportunity to bring their young people to meet with other local young Christians and experience 'Church' in a positive way that is not often portrayed in the media. For more details on these events, contact Mary Allwood, 355637.

The next Book Club will be on Tuesday 17 July at Ewa Allen's house, 42 Hawthorn Way. The book to read is 'Sum - Forty Tales from the Afterlives' by David Eagleman.

St Andrew's News & Notices

The Azul Wasi Riverside Sponsored Walk took place on Sunday 17 June. A group of 13 (plus Tricia's dogs – one of whom clearly thought it was a sponsored swim) set off from the hall, and walked to Waterbeach and back, covering 10 miles on a lovely sunny day. Thank you to all those who have sponsored us. It is not too late to do so - if you would like to, please pass on your donation to the Pountains or the Abreys. All money raised will go towards the food costs at Azul Wasi (the Blue House) in Cusco, Peru. For more information about Azul Wasi contact Mary Pountain - mary.pountain@gmail.com

Freewill offering envelopes are ready for collection at the back of the Church for the coming year.
