ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

9 September 2012

WELCOME to St Andrew's.

Today at 10am is our Friends' Festival service when our preacher will be the Revd Dr James Gardom (vicar 1997-2006; now Dean of Pembroke). Junior Church begins today and at the end of the service we will be commissioning them for their new year of Christian learning and growing.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

*'How awesome is this place!
This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.'

Coming up... this week

On Tuesday, the Umbrella Group is having lunch at 1 Leys Road, 12 for 12.30pm. The lunch will be provided by the committee and will cost £6 per person. Please let either Ursula, Daphne, Jill or Pat know if you would like to come.

There will be no Silver Threads on Tuesday.

Coming up... next Sunday

Stand by for chaos... the pet service returns to our calendar! Do bring along a non-human companion that will survive coming to church—Next Sunday at 10am.

Eleanor is collecting images of people and their pets in preparation for the Pet Service so we can show them via the data projector that morning. If you have a picture of you with your goldfish/dog/hamster/elephant etc., please could you email it to eleanor@standrews-hall.co.uk by Tuesday? Thank you!

Coming up... later this month

The book group meets on 18 September at Ewa Allen's house, 42 Hawthorn Way. The book is 'Stone Angel' by Margaret Laurence.

Back to Church Sunday is on 30 September—do take an invitation from the back of church and invite someone along. There is also a pre-back-to-church-Sunday on 23 September (!) when Nick will be talking about 'Losing my religion: Richard Holloway, doubt and what might be left to believe in'.

St Andrew's News

Calendars for September to December are available at the back of church—do take one.

Since Stewardship Sunday (way back in February) 44 of you have responded to the letter about giving and £3,250 extra has been pledged for this year (as against the £3,500 needed). It is not too late to respond—or you may be new to St Andrew's and have not yet joined our giving scheme. Do have a word with Jim Pollard or Simon PJ—we still need you!

Membership of all our choral groups (Junior Youth Choir, Senior Youth Choir, New Voices, Parish Choir, Allcomers Choir) is at a critical level, and we are urgently looking to recruit new members in the autumn. Please give prayerful consideration to whether a regular commitment to this aspect of our worship would be appropriate for you, your family or your friends (see <http://www.standrews-chesterton.org/activities/music/> for further details or speak to one of the Music Team - Chris, Mary, John, Maggie - or a choir member), and let Chris know of your interest (tel 311055, chris.pountain@ntlworld.com).

The Jubilee Centre is organising two half day conferences on Saturday 22 September looking at Christian responses to the debt crisis, both globally and locally. "After Capitalism: Rethinking Economic Relationships" considers the big picture of what's wrong with Capitalism and what an alternative might look like, with speakers Paul Mills and Michael Schluter. Then the afternoon conference, "Courageous Stewardship: Managing Money in Turbulent Times" looks at practical local responses. It introduces an exciting, debt-free approach to house purchase, and considers various initiatives churches can take to reach out to people struggling with debt; speakers are Matthew Gray and Keith Tondeur, of Credit Action. The venue is Christ Church, Cambridge;. People wishing to attend should reserve a place by emailing Alan White: A.White@jubilee-centre.org.

Cambridge Christian Writers have a new venue. From Monday 10 September 2012, @ 7.15pm they will meet monthly at St Martin's Church, Suez Road, via
