It would be a great opportunity to invite people who might be interested in hearing a footballer talking about their faith. Have a word with Nick if interested.

The North Cambridge Food Bank has begun operations on Thursdays between 11:00 and 13:00, at the Church of the Good Shepherd. Helpers would be most welcome, and it is hoped that a rota will be arranged. Some formalities have to be observed, requiring the signing of documents, as is normal when volunteering for this type of work. This is being managed by Liz Collinson, who would be very pleased to hear from you and help you to make the necessary arrangements. She can be contacted at lizcollinson55@hotmail.co.uk.

There will once again be a Chesterton Festival photo competition this year. The subject for 2013 will be a picture of FLOWERS, PLANTS or TREES. Information and forms are on the table at the back of church.

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

24 February 2013

Welcome to St Andrew's.

The 10am service today will include prayers, laying on of hands and anointing for forgiveness and healing. This provides an opportune time in Lent to consider where we need healing in relationships, perhaps because of things in us that it would be good to own up to.

Our special reflective evening services for Lent continues tonight with a Taizé service at 6pm led by Tricia Troughton. (Nick is preaching at Westminster Abbey this afternoon—prayers appreciated!)

March-May editions of Chesterton News are at the back of church awaiting collection by deliverers.

This is the year that our church electoral roll starts from scratch, so everyone signs up again or for the first time. Existing members will be notified and should return their forms. Forms for new members are at the back of church—do take one.

'Seek the LORD while he maybe found, call upon him while he is near.'

- Our seeking a new Director of Music following Chris's retirement in the summer

This week

Lyn Carr's funeral will be on Monday. The committal will be at the crematorium at 12.15pm with a service of thanksgiving at St Andrew's at 1.30pm. Lyn was a former churchwarden of St Andrew's and was a gifted artist and craftswoman—she made the frontal that is on the altar today.

This year's Women's World Day of Prayer event will be at St George's Church on Friday at 2.30pm. All welcome.

Coming up...

Calling all Dads'n'Kids! Your help is needed to ensure that your mothers are suitably honoured on Mothering Sunday... Please come to the Church for an hour's creative work on Saturday 9 March at 10am. You will be rewarded with caffeine and unLenten biscuits.

The next meeting of the book group will be on Tuesday 12 March at the home of Ros Ayres, 77 St Andrew Road, at 8 pm. We will be discussing the book 'To be delivered in the event of my death: Ten Letters' by Chris Russell, which is available for £4.00 from Amazon. The author wonders every birthday whether the year to come will be his last, and what legacy he will leave behind. Ten Letters comprises the things he would most want to say in the event of his death. New or occasional members very welcome, but please let Ros know if you are planning to come (tel: 328995).

There will be a Beetle Drive on Saturday 16 March in the Hall, 6.15 for 6.30pm, in aid of Azul Wasi. Tickets £8 (under 12 £5) from Cynthia Bull, 322467 nvbull@ntlworld.com or Mary Pountain, 311055 mary.pountain@gmail.com.

Bishop Stephen

Our bishop has been having a rotten Lent, having ruptured his appendix and had an emergency operation. The doctors have instructed him to cancel all engagements up to Maundy Thursday which means that, sadly, he won't be able to join us either for Mothering Sunday or for the event on 22 March ('The MP and the Bishop') which is therefore cancelled.

Lent at St Andrew's

Through Lent with Luke. During Lent we are reading through Luke's account of the journey to Jerusalem (from 9.51). We are encouraging the reading of a portion of the narrative during each week (see readings for the week) and are including passages from these in our morning and evening services.

During Lent we are also providing another opportunity to join a prayer triplet. Please let John Reynolds know if you'd like to take part.

There is a diocesan prayer card for Lent—with a link for more Lent resources. Please do pick one up from the back of church.

Director of Music

Very sadly, Chris Pountain will be retiring from his position at St Andrew's following 11 years with us. The good news is that Chris and Mary intend to remain in our church family, but we are now looking for a new Director of Music.

The PCC took the opportunity to review our current range and styles of music and worship. By responding to questionnaires we made the following judgements:

- That the mix of traditional/modern, formal/informal was about right, though with a slight desire for more of the modern/informal
- That all-age worship is a strength of St Andrew's and to be celebrated
- That we are glad to have a strong emphasis on music at St Andrew's and for the leadership of choir and organ, and for the variety of choirs
- That we are open to change but also value very much what we have got

A small group (John Marsh, Victoria Goodman, John Reynolds, David Stollwerck Boulton & Nick Moir) has been appointed to manage the appointment of a new Director of Music. You are welcome to lobby them! An advert appeared in the Church Times on Friday, reproduced below.

There are A5 posters at the back advertising the post. If you can think of somewhere strategic to place one, then please take a copy and spread the news!

Readings for Daily Prayer

Through Lent with Luke

Day 1: 13.10-21    Day 2: 13.22-30
Day 3: 13.31-35    Day 4: 14.1-11
Day 5: 14.12-14    Day 6: 14.24-35

Next Sunday's reading:
Luke 13.31-35

teaching in both cases. It is on Tuesday 12 March, 6.30 for 7pm, LAB 006, Anglia Ruskin University, East Road, Cambridge.

Stuart Wood, the chaplain of Cambridge Utd, has booked Linvoy Primus (ex-professional footballer with Portsmouth FC) to come and share the story of his faith journey. The event will be held at Cambridge United FC on Monday 15 April. There will be tables of 10 available to book – ideally, from an organisation point of view, he would much rather a Church book

Director of Music

St Andrew's is a busy and thriving parish church which values the young and the aged, old and new, liturgy and informality, Scripture and sacrament, the contemplative and the joyful. We have a patchwork of six choirs, some in separate age groups and others that bring them together. We have an organist in post and other church members who are able to assist or deputise.

We need a team leader

- with vision for using our many and varied resources to make music for the glory of God and the building up of the church
- with the musical, personal and spiritual skills to recruit, train and encourage musicians of all ages
