

James and Judith Gardom are involved in discussions about the future possibility of a L'Arche house in Cambridge (where those with learning difficulties live alongside others in a Christian community). As a step on the way, there is a plan for a 'Hub House', from August this year. If you would like to know more about the project, do have a word with Judith.

The Cambridge CLC (Christian) Bookshop are looking for volunteers. You'd receive training in various areas of bookshop work. If you're interested and would like more details, just ask in the shop or email cambridge@clcbookshops.com.

On Wednesday 26 June at Ely Methodist Church, Ridley Hall's Simeon Centre and the Diocese of Ely are co-sponsoring a day conference entitled 'I'm Still Here': Spirituality and Dementia. The keynote speaker is the Revd Dr Joanna Collicutt, Oxford Diocesan Advisor on the Spiritual Care of Older People. For details and to book, see www.simeoncentre.co.uk.

Donations of any old newspaper or magazine pictures of 1950-1970 era bikes will be greatly appreciated for a local project to build a scrap book to help reignite fond memories for older bikers who may have memory problems—especially Norton TT racers, BSAs, Triumphs, Vespas. Offers c/o Margaret Partridge, 327884 or 362039.

Items for the pewsheets should reach Margaret at the parish office by Thursday please. Please write your contributions in the style as above—no headlines, and full sentences not staccato notes or abbreviations please! Subjects and dates should be highlighted in bold. St Andrew's events will be given priority; other notices may have to wait until there is space, but we'll do our best. Notices will normally be removed when they have ceased to be relevant or after 3-4 weeks.

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

19 May 2013

Welcome to St Andrew's.

This morning at our 10am service four of our children will be receiving Communion for the first time: Paolo, Eleanor, Alex and Lucas. As it normally a Family Service day we are splitting the service into two with the Communion part after coffee and refreshments.

Nick is again away this weekend helping to inspect the Lincoln School of Theology, but promises (or threatens?) to be around after that for weeks and weeks.... Alasdair Coles is with us today, leading the 8am service. We are delighted to welcome him back and thank him for helping us out.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.'

This week...

The next Umbrella Group meeting is on Thursday, 2pm, at Chesterton House. Our speaker will be Sally Nott who will talk about her work with children for Menelik Education Ltd.

Would you be interested in sharing a day of living in community—sharing prayer, bible study, meals and discussion—with visitors from the Melanesian Brothers and Sisters, a unique Christian community from the far side of the world? A small group of us will be participating in a day at Ely Cathedral on Thursday. It should be an inspiring day—do come and join us. Enquiries to Nick.

St Andrew's News & Notices

Copies of the June - August edition of Chesterton News are at the back of church awaiting collection. Thank you to all our distributors!

Calendars for May to August are available at the back of church—do pick one up if you haven't got one.

Subject to sorting out the fine print, we have a new Director of Music to replace Chris when he retires in the summer. His name is Peter Wadl. He has had vast experience in directing church choirs – St Lawrence's, Abbots Langley; St Mary's, Hemel Hempstead; St John the Baptist, Royston, and St Mary's, Ware. He gave up the latter at the end of last year because of the toll of travelling to and fro: he now lives in Cottenham, so views coming to Chesterton with relish! He is the founder and music director of Cambridge Camerata, a semi-professional orchestra that presents concerts in and around East Anglia. He has studied with luminaries such as Simon Rattle and Mark Elder, and works as a freelance conductor, organist and teacher. He loves working with different ages and abilities. We look forward to welcoming him in September.

We also have a successor to Adrian in the pipeline. Her name is Julia Birke—also from Germany—and she lists some of her interests as horse-riding, baking and singing in the youth and gospel choirs at church.

Coming up...

You are warmly invited to join in our celebration of Chris Pountain's 65th birthday and his forthcoming retirement in August both from his job and from his post as Director of Music at St Andrew's. On Saturday 25 May at 4pm in church we are holding a 'Come and Sing' event and have a choir of about 100 signed up to sing Vivaldi's 'Gloria', Parry's 'I was Glad' and Handel's 'Zadok the Priest'. Peter Horley is conducting the choir and Chris will be playing the organ. The concert (about 45 mins) will be followed by refreshments. If you would like to join in the choir, or would be able to help with providing some cakes, serving refreshments, welcoming people or moving chairs, please contact Mary as soon as possible (tel.311055,) mary.pountain@gmail.com).

There will be a concert by Umea Oratorio Choir on Saturday 8 June at 7.30pm. The programme will include Swedish sacred and secular music. Tickets are £8 (£6 concessions).

The next meeting of the book group will be on Tuesday 18 June at 8pm at the home of Zoe Lewin, 35 George Street. Please note change of venue for this month only. We will be discussing The End of Your Life Book Club, by Will Schwalbe. This is an autobiography about Will and his mother Mary Ann, who are spending a lot of time together at hospital appointments as Mary Ann has terminal pancreatic cancer. They talk a lot about what they are reading, discussing the books and suggesting new ones to each other. It's a testament to the power of love between a child and parent, and the power of reading in our lives. All new and occasional members welcome, but please let Zoe know if you are planning to come (tel. 701820).

Holiday Club: 27-30 August

This year we are very fortunate to have Ruth Adams, who is the vicar of St George's, as part of the team. She has tried and tested her own holiday club material at Bar Hill Church, so this year we are using her own: "CLUB AD.33" !!!

We will have the same activities as recent years: drama, sport, games, crafts, music, quizzes and discussions, all based on the theme of "important places Jesus visited". All children from 5-11 years of age are most welcome and any adult or teenager who would like to come along and help, please do!! It is held at St Andrew's Hall, from 9.45-12.30 every morning. We provide snacks each morning and all for £5.00 per child for the four mornings!

To register a place you will need to fill in a registration form, which are at the back of the church or at the Hall.

For more information or offers of help, please contact Caroline Lamaison (361780).
