26 May 2013

Welcome to St Andrew's.

Today at the 10am service Florence Rowen and Elizabeth Davies are to be baptised. We welcome them and their families and friends who have gathered to support them.

Last week was Stewardship Sunday and there are letters at the back of church for regular members of St Andrew's. There are pledge cards available at the back of church (and also in the envelopes) - do please fill these up and bring them back. They can be folded and put in the collection or given to Simon.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

We do have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

come under my roof... but only speak the word...'*

St Andrew's News & Notices

As our children's and families ministry has grown, so those children are growing into teenagers! We now have quite a lot of young people and need to provide for them in church. So we would like to invite members of the congregation who are interested in getting involved, or have ideas or experience to contribute, or who would like to commit themselves to pray for the young people, to come to an open meeting straight after church on Sunday 9 June in the Hall. Contact Mary Allwood, Victoria or Nick if you want to know more.

Did you know that there is a service every Sunday at Langdon House (Union Lane), led by volunteers from St Andrew's and other local churches. Two service leaders have just retired as has one of the regular pianists. Could you help in either capacity? Please have a word with Nick.

The PCC (church council) met for the first time since new members were elected. Amongst its decisions was to consult members of the congregation about the timing of our evening services. The 6pm time used during Lent this year and last caused some confusion but proved to be popular with others. We would like to hear from those who do regularly attend in the evening and also from those who would consider doing so if the time were different. Comments to PCC members, please (there's a list at the back of church).

Copies of the June - August edition of Chesterton News are at the back of church awaiting collection. Thank you to all our distributors!

Calendars for May to August are available at the back of church—do pick one up if you haven't got one.

Coming up...

The PCC meets to pray every other month, but warmly welcome all to join them. The next date is Monday 10 June, 8pm in the Hall. A more recent tradition is to retire to the pub for the second half of the evening and the recently reopened Haymakers will make a splendid venue....

The next meeting of the book group will be on Tuesday 18 June at 8pm at the home of Zoe Lewin, 35 George Street. Please note change of venue for this month only. We will be discussing The End of Your Life Book Club, by Will Schwalbe. This is an autobiography about Will and his mother Mary Ann, who are spending a lot of time together at hospital appointments as Mary Ann has terminal pancreatic cancer. They talk a lot about what they are reading, discussing the books and suggesting new ones to each other. It's a testament to the power of love between a child and parent, and the power of reading in our lives. All new and occasional members welcome, but please let Zoe know if you are planning to come (tel. 701820).

This year's Great & Small Tea Party will be on Sunday 23 June at 3pm in the Hall. This is the occasion when our younger church members put on some entertainment for our older members. Do come along!

Chesterton Festival: 28-30 June

This year's Festival will soon be upon us. There are a number of ways in which you could help. Here are two:

We need welcomers in the Church on the Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Could you give an hour? There is a sign up list on the board at the back of church.

We also need to have some able bodies to help set up and take down equipment and in particular:

- 2 people for 9-10.30pm on Friday 28th at Brownsfield
- 6 people on the rec. early on the Saturday morning for 2-3 hours and 4 people at 5pm for 1-2 hours

Offers to Nick, please.

Holiday Club: 27-30 August

This year we are very fortunate to have Ruth Adams, who is the vicar of St George's, as part of the team. She has tried and tested her own holiday club material at Bar Hill Church, so this year we are using her own: "CLUB AD.33" !!!

We will have the same activities as recent years: drama, sport, games, crafts, music,
