ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

7 July 2013

Welcome to St Andrew's.

Today many of our youth choir will be receiving ribbons or awards— a big thank you to them for all their hard work and all they contribute to the life and worship of our church. This will also be the last time our full choir will be in action under Chris's direction....

This afternoon the youth choir will be performing their concert - which includes Andrew Carter's Benedicite, and solo items. It will be followed by refreshments and there will be a retiring collection.

Next Sunday evening there will be a 'Thinking our Faith' event with Dr Rosalind Love (aka Mrs Moir) speaking about the old English poem 'The Dream of the Rood' - 6.30pm in the Hall, with wine and refreshments. The evening will conclude with a short service of Compline (Night Prayer).

Please note that next week's pewsheets will also cover the following two weeks (Sundays 14, 21 and 28 July), so items for inclusion need to be received by this Thursday. There will then be a pewsheet to cover most of August.

St Andrew's News & Notices

Adrian's last Sunday with us is on 21 July. We'll be sending him on his way with a scrapbook of memories of his St Andrew's friends (A4-sized contributions to Eleanor, please - photos, letters, drawings, poetry...) and fortified by a bring-and-share lunch in the Hall after coffee. Please let Eleanor know if you plan to come and what you'd be able to bring. Then, on Sunday 4 August, a visit from Flori (our previous TFG volunteer) will provide the occasion for another lunch! Bring-and-share again, but this time at the Vicarage (10 Lynfield Lane). Again, please let Eleanor know if you're coming and what you'd be able to contribute. Thank you.

It is with some shock that we report the death of our local (Arbury Road) Baptist minister, Neil Harding, who died suddenly this week at the age of 56. Our warmest sympathies and prayers are with his wife Ruth, their four children and the church community.

We are also sad to report the death of Ian Parrott who was organist and choirmaster in the 1960s. As a boy, Ian was a chorister at Westminster Abbey, and sang at the coronation of King George VI. His knowledge and understanding of the church music repertoire was vast, and he was also a skilled arranger. A memorial service will take place at Alconbury Parish Church on Monday 15 July at 12 noon.

A pre-holiday-club-week challenge is to transform the main hall at the Hall into the Sea of Galilee. Rubber dinghies, tree-type plants in pots, blue sheets, ideas and HELPERS would be welcomed. Please let Eleanor know if you'd like to join in.

On 3 May 2014 at 5.00pm, there will be a national celebration at St Paul's Cathedral to mark 20 years of women priests. This celebration service is open to all and places are likely to be much in demand. The diocese is looking into the possibility of arranging coaches to take people into London for the service and they are wanting to gauge an indication of interest to ensure enough places are reserved. (Costs for an air conditioned coach is working out at £12 per person.) If you are interested in going, please would you let Margaret Partridge know by 29 July.

Stewardship News

Many thanks to the 34 of you who have returned your stewardship pledges: that includes some whose circumstances mean that either they cannot raise their giving at this time or they need to decrease it (we absolutely understand why). But overall our pledged giving has increased by £3.700 for general funds; in addition £2,500 a year had been pledged for our children and young families co-ordinator, and £1,670 a year for our music director. Thank you—that is a brilliant response so far and we are well on target. Hallelujah! But that's only 34 of you....

Coming up...

On Saturday 13 July, 7.30pm, we will be swept into The Ecstasies Above at a concert given by the Cambridge Chorale. The programme will include music for choir and string quartet by Beethoven, Gjeilo, Gibbons, Monteverdi, Mozart, O'Regan and Whitacre. Tickets are £13, £11 (conc.), £6 (student/U16) online, from 0845 680 1926 or on the door. £1 discount for advance booking.

The next Hard Questions will be at Caroline Fisher's house (83 Hertford Street CB4 3AF), at 7.30pm – 10.00pm on Friday 19 July to discuss "Are Christians who enjoy a closer relationship with God just lucky?" so come along and participate! Please email Chris Lamaison (cal@camres.co.uk) so they will know how many to cater for. Feel tempted to bring a pudding, wine or whatever you wish.

Music at St Andrew's

Chris Pountain writes:

As I prepare to hand over the music to Peter Wadl in September, it would give me great pleasure to be able to assure him of new members interested in being part of the musical life of St Andrew's and so continuing its long tradition. So if you enjoy singing and would like to become involved in one of the music groups please contact Mary or myself. (tel 311055 or mary.pountain@gmail.com) so that we can let Peter know of your interest.

In particular the Youth Choir is seeking new members - age 7ish upwards, practices on Fridays during term time, 6.10pm - 7.15pm, and singing in church on 1st and 3rd Sundays.

Allcomers Choir sings on the 4th and 5th Sundays, with straightforward music and just a practice before the service, 9.15am – no robes or processing.
