25 August 2013

Welcome to St Andrew's.

The children's Holiday Club runs from Tuesday to Friday this week with over 40 children and a large team of leaders and helpers. Do pray for them, especially for the organiser, Caroline Lamaison, and for Ruth Adams who will be leading the main sessions. Next Sunday's service (which will include a look back over the holiday club week) will be in two halves, with a break at the Peace for coffee and Communion afterwards.

Our new Time for God volunteer, Julia Birke, is flying in tonight. She will be staying at the vicarage for ten days before moving to her home for the months ahead with John, Catherine and Olivia. Would you like to invite her round for a meal or a coffee? Please have a word with Nick.

St Andrew's News & Notices

A pre-holiday-club-week challenge is to transform the main hall at the Hall into the Sea of Galilee. Rubber dinghies, tree-type plants in pots, blue sheets, ideas and HELPERS would be welcomed. Please let Eleanor know if you'd like to join in.

Everyone on the Electoral Roll is entitled to a free Ely Cathedral pass. If you would like a pass, please complete the form at the back of church.

Cynthia Bull, Diana and Christopher would like to thank everyone at St Andrew's for all their cards, letters and kind support at this sad time, especially those who made the Thanksgiving service so memorable.

Music at St Andrew's

Chris Pountain writes:

As I prepare to hand over the music to Peter Wadl in September, it would give me great pleasure to be able to assure him of new members interested in being part of the musical life of St Andrew's and so continuing its long tradition. So if you enjoy singing and would like to become involved in one of the music groups please contact Mary or myself. (tel 311055 or mary.pountain@gmail.com) so that we can let Peter know of your interest.

In particular the Youth Choir is seeking new members - age 7ish upwards, practices on Fridays during term time, 6.10pm - 7.15pm, and singing in church on 1st and 3rd Sundays.

Allcomers Choir sings on the 4th and 5th Sundays, with straightforward music and just a practice before the service, 9.15am – no robes or processing.

New Voices sing on the 2nd Sunday - singing more challenging music with just 2 practices, this is more suitable for singers with good sight-singing skills.

Minims (for reception children up to age 7ish) meets on the 3rd Sunday, 4pm – 4.45pm, for singing and musical fun. Contact David or Linda Stollwerck Boulton for more information- linda@dandlsb.wanadoo.co.uk
