29 September 2013

Welcome to St Andrew's.

Today is the feast of St Michael & All Angels (lending its name to the university term that begins this following week). It will kick off for us the beginning of 'A Season of Saints' at our 10am services until Advent. And the evening service today will include a photographic tour of the angels of St Andrew's (look up: they're flying above you...)

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

We do have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

*'How awesome is this place!
This is none other than the

Next week... Harvest

Our Harvest Festival is next Sunday. There will be a lunch in the Hall, open to all. Stewart Abrey is kindly catering and the main course will be chicken à la King with rice (chicken in a creamy sweet pepper sauce—not hot) and ratatouille and rice for vegetarians. Tickets are available (£5 adults; £2.50 children) from Maggie Fernie—the deadline is Wednesday.

As always, you are invited to bring Harvest gifts: fresh produce will go to WinterComfort, non-perishables (see the list below) to the Cambridge Foodbank. Cash gifts will support the work of the Church Urban Fund whose resources we will be using in the service.

The Cambridge Foodbank is requesting items from this list:

- Tinned rice pudding
- Tinned sponge pudding
- Tinned meat, eg mince, chicken, pies
- Tinned fish, eg tuna
- Tinned soup
- Snacks
- Treats, eg small bars of chocolate or small packs of sweets
- Jam
- Instant coffee (small jars)

All items must be in date and undamaged.

In the evening there will be a special service of Choral Evensong for Harvest at 6.30pm.

Other News & Notices

The Cambridge City Foodbank is presenting 'Poor kids', a film made for BBC2 by Bafta award winning director Jezza Neumann, at the ArtsPicturehouse on Monday 14 October at 7.00pm. The showing will be followed by a Q&A between the director and David Maher, Vicar of The Good Shepherd Church in Arbury. The hour-long film shows how poverty blights the lives of four children through lack of food, bullying, bad living conditions. Their stories are told directly by them, accounts which are articulate and moving. Jezza Neumann won Bafta awards for his 'China's stolen children' and 'Zimbabwe's forgotten children' and is currently working on his next film which will be about children in food poverty in Britain. Booking starts on 8 October. Call 0871 902 5720 or book online through the ArtsPicturehouse Cambridge website. Please - book early because the cinema will move the showing into a larger screening room on the basis of early booking numbers.

The White House Arts Charity Art Exhibition in aid of Rowan and SOS Children is an opportunity to get creative and take part, and make a difference to people's lives.
