Cambridge NightLite are looking for new care volunteers to join a team, minimum every 6 weekly, 10pm – 4 am. Based at St Columba's Church in Cambridge, NightLite operates every Saturday night providing care for anyone who needs it, e.g. a safe place to wait for friends or taxis, a place to recover from over indulgence in order to get home safely, a place to gain a listening ear, refreshment, toilet or access a First Aid kit and some practical help. Full training will be given and attendance at one of the Briefing Evenings on 10 September or 8 October would mean volunteers could expect to join a team in October or November. 'If you want to see Kingdom values put into practice, have been settled in a Church for over a year, have a non judgmental attitude but are willing to talk about your faith when asked, then maybe God is calling you to this work.' To talk further, contact Alan Lowe on 0758 856 090.

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

13 October 2013

Welcome to St Andrew's.

There are two services at 10am this morning—a less formal All-age Eucharist in the Hall (with children's groups, but all ages welcome) and a Sung Eucharist (with New Voices) in Church.

This evening there will be a United Service at St George's as they celebrate their 75th anniversary.

It is St Luke's Day on Friday and next Sunday our Luketide service will include anointing and laying on of hands for healing.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'Seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.'
Jeremiah 29.7

Please pray for:

- Among the sick, housebound or recovering: Alison Hughes, Betty and Gordon Borley, Benjamin Black, Betty Jennings, Ivy Jolley, Margaret Partridge
- Development projects in both Church and Hall: the works in church (porch and ramp) and the Hall extension
- St Georges's—celebrating their 75th anniversary and looking to discern their future mission and ministry
- Our diocesan synod meeting on Saturday (see below)
- RIP Ann Winter

Coming up... this week

Come to Monday's coffee morning in the Hall and you can also stay on for a game of Scrabble.

Come for an hour of prayer on Tuesday at 8pm in the Hall. This is billed as 'PCC prayers' but all are welcome as we offer our life, mission and ministry to God and seek his vision and blessing. Prayer is the boiler-room of the church (appropriate this week as we've turned the heating on!) - often unseen but crucial to our life. Those who's like to be invited to a drink afterwards at the Haymakers.

St Andrew's News & Notices

If you are interested in leading prayers during services then we'd love to hear from you. There is a vacancy at evening service for a sidesperson on 4th Sundays and for some clearing up/tidying up after the short communion on 3rd Sundays. Speak to Patricia Abrey or send an email patriciaabrey@ntlworld.com. Full training is given.

John Reynolds writes

Thank you to everyone who supported the Friends' Coffee Moring and Sale on 7 September. With donations received since the event, we have raised £708—a splendid result.

Cynthia Bull would appreciate empty jars for marmalade. Please phone her on 322467 to arrange collection or leave under the bench outside 10 Capstan Close.

Please note that the dates for the next Parish Weekend: 3-5 October 2014. Now you can book your cruise without fear of clashing dates.

The Church Times has reached the venerable age of 150. They are offering free samplers to give you a flavour of their coverage. Do take one from the back of church (south door)—it's actually rather good...

St Andrew's Festival

We will be celebrating our St Andrew's Festival on the weekend of 30 November (St Andrew's Day) and 1 December. On the Saturday there will be the Fayre and Hall birthday party (2-5pm) and in the evening there will be supper and a ceilidh. Tickets will be available from next week. On the Sunday we will keep both St Andrew's Day and Advent Sunday (with a bit of creativity...)

St Andrew's Hall News

Now that we have received planning permission for the Hall extension our architects (Freeland Rees Roberts) are busy drawing up full plans in order to go out to tender. Our hope and expectation is that work will begin in January/February and be completed in August.

Hurray and Hiss! is our drop-in event for All Hallows Eve—Thursday 31 October, 4-5.30pm, at the Hall. There will be games, refreshments and fun— all welcome! Children must be accompanied by a responsible adult. There is no need to book. Cost: £2 per family. See www.standrewshall-co.uk.

News from the Diocese

The Diocesan Synod meets on Saturday to discuss next year's budget, a new world church link with Rwanda, the environment (and what parishes ought to be doing) and the progress towards women bishops.

Other News & Notices

The Cambridge City Foodbank is presenting 'Poor kids', a film made for BBC2 by Bafta award winning director Jezza Neumann, at the ArtsPicturehouse on Monday 14 October at 7.00pm. The showing will be followed by a Q&A between the director and David Maher, Vicar of The Good Shepherd Church in Arbury. The hour-long film shows how poverty blights the lives of four children through lack of food, bullying, bad living conditions. Their stories are told directly by them, accounts which are articulate and moving. Jezza Neumann won Bafta awards for his 'China's stolen children' and 'Zimbabwe's forgotten children' and is currently working on his next film which will be about children in food poverty in Britain. Booking starts on 8 October. Call 0871 902 5720 or book online through the ArtsPicturehouse Cambridge website. Please - book early because the cinema will move the showing into a larger screening room on the basis of early booking numbers.
