ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

20 October 2013

Welcome to St Andrew's.

Today's Family Service includes the laying on of hands and anointing for healing. This may bring up issues that you'd like to talk to someone about when there is more time after the service. Do ask a member of the healing team or one of the clergy for a chat (which may be straightaway or a convenient time later on).

There will be a short Communion (about 15 minutes) straight after the Family Service this morning.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.'

- Helen Orr (our new curate-to-be) and family
- RIP Ann Winter

Coming up... in November

Sunday 3 November is when we observe All Saints (at our 10am service) and All Souls at our afternoon (4pm) Remembering Service: the latter includes the opportunity for the names of the departed to be read out and flowers to be laid as we remember our loved ones. All are welcome.

Remembrance Day is on Sunday 10 November. Our morning service will not be a Communion and will end as always with the act of Remembrance at the war memorial. In the evening our 6.30pm Eucharist will include the singing of Fauré's Requiem.

The next Hard Questions will be at Robert and Liz Frayling-Cork's house, 46 Garden Walk, CB4 3EN, at 7.30-10pm on Friday 15 November to discuss 'How is Christianity compatible with 21st century scientific discoveries and innovations—how do we make sense of life and existence in the century of Stephen Hawking?'

We have a mission gift day on Sunday 17 November when we will be hearing about, and offering our gifts for, the work of the Melanesian Mission.

The next meeting of the book group will be at 8 pm on Tuesday 19 November at the home of Ewa Allen, 42 Hawthorn Way (tel. 367351). We will be discussing the book The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry, by Rachel Joyce. It follows the fortunes of Harold Fry who, when he leaves home one morning to post a letter, with his wife hovering upstairs, has no idea he is about to walk from one end of the country to the other. 'Impossible to put down' (says The Times...). As ever, all new and occasional members are most welcome.

The next Umbrella Group meeting is on Thursday 24 November at 55 St Andrew's Road at 2.15pm. Sue Edwards from the Mayor's Office will talk to us about the work of the Mayor. There will be a collection which will to a charity that the Mayor supports.

St Andrew's Festival

We will be celebrating our St Andrew's Festival on the weekend of 30 November (St Andrew's Day) and 1 December. On the Saturday there will be the Fayre and Hall birthday party (2-5pm) and in the evening (6.30pm-10pm) there will be supper and a ceilidh. Tickets are available today: £10 adults, £5 children. On the Sunday we will keep both St Andrew's Day and Advent Sunday (with a bit of creativity...)

St Andrew's News & Notices

We are delighted that Bishop Stephen is sending us a new curate next summer. Helen Orr—who is married and has a young family—is currently training at Ridley Hall and will be self-supporting (as Alasdair Coles was). She will be ordained at the same time as Eleanor so there will be double cause for celebration!

If you are interested in leading prayers during services then we'd love to hear from you. There is a vacancy for some clearing up/tidying up after the short communion on 3rd Sundays. Speak to Patricia Abrey or send an email patriciaabrey@ntlworld.com. Full training is given.

John Reynolds writes

Thank you to everyone who supported the Friends' Coffee Moring and Sale on 7 September. With donations received since the event, we have raised £708—a splendid result.

Cynthia Bull would appreciate empty jars for marmalade. Please phone her on 322467 to arrange collection or leave under the bench outside 10 Capstan Close.

Please note that the dates for the next Parish Weekend: 3-5 October 2014. Now you can book your cruise without fear of clashing dates.

The Church Times has reached the venerable age of 150. They are offering free samplers to give you a flavour of their coverage. Do take one from the back of church (south door)—it's actually rather good...

St Andrew's Hall News

Now that we have received planning permission for the Hall extension our architects (Freeland Rees Roberts) are busy drawing up full plans in order to go out to tender. Our hope and expectation is that work will begin in January/February and be completed in August.

Hurray and Hiss! is our drop-in event for All Hallows Eve—Thursday 31 October, 4-5.30pm, at the Hall. There will be games, refreshments and fun— all welcome! Children must be accompanied by a responsible adult. There is no need to book. Cost: £2 per family. See www.standrewshall-co.uk.

Other News & Notices

'The Day of the Lord' is an Advent quiet day organised by the Simeon Centre at Ridley Hall on Saturday 23 November, 10am-4pm. For details and to book: www.simeoncentre.co.uk or phone Rosemary Kew on 746953.

The White House Arts Charity Art Exhibition in aid of Rowan and SOS Children is an opportunity to get creative and take part, and make a difference to people's lives. Buy a canvas for £10, create something on it and return it by 4 November. All canvases will be exhibited anonymously. Leaflets at back of the church or from the WHA website <http://www.whitehousearts.co.uk/>.

Canon Mike Parker will be speaking at St Andrew's, Histon on Sunday 24 November, at the 7 pm 'Sunday Extra' meeting. Until recently Mike was Senior Chaplain at Cairo

Questioning Faith

*Can we believe?
What can we believe?
How can we believe?*
