ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

10 November 2013

Welcome to St Andrew's.

Today is Remembrance Day. Our morning service will end as always with the act of Remembrance at the war memorial. Our series of sermons during the Season of Saints continues today with St Martin of Tours.

This evening our 6.30pm Eucharist will include the singing of Fauré's Requiem.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'And the king will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.'

Coming up... this week

The Umbrella group meets on Tuesday, 2pm, at 55 St Andrew's Road. The speaker will be Tricia Troughton.

Questioning Faith continues this week—on Wednesday at 7.45pm in the Hall.

Hard Questions meets on Friday at Robert and Liz Frayling-Cork's house, 46 Garden Walk, CB4 3EN, at 7.30-10pm to discuss 'how is Christianity compatible for 21st century scientific discoveries and innovations—how do we make sense of life and existence in the century of Stephen Hawking?'. Please let Chris Lamaison know if you're coming (361780; cal@camres.co.uk).

Coming up... this month

We have a mission gift day on Sunday 17 November when we will be hearing about, and offering our gifts for, the work of the Melanesian Mission.

The next meeting of the book group will be at 8 pm on Tuesday 19 November at the home of Ewa Allen, 42 Hawthorn Way (tel. 367351). We will be discussing the book The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry, by Rachel Joyce. It follows the fortunes of Harold Fry who, when he leaves home one morning to post a letter, with his wife hovering upstairs, has no idea he is about to walk from one end of the country to the other. 'Impossible to put down' (says The Times...). As ever, all new and occasional members are most welcome.

Don't miss the bundling session for the December - February edition of Chesterton News: Wednesday 20 November, 2.30pm, at St Andrew's Hall. Biscuits, company, cups of tea and counting to 10. No experience, fitness or competence necessary. Please come! The News will be available at the back of church for collection by distributors straight away thereafter. Thanks in anticipation.

The Orlando Singers invite you to celebrate the Centenary of Benjamin Britten on Saturday 23 November in St Andrew's at 7.30pm. £10/8 concessions. Music will include the finale of 'Noye's Fludde' featuring the Youth choir, the Vicar and the audience! Other music includes 'Hymn to St. Celia' and 'Rejoice in the lamb'.

St Andrew's Festival

We will be celebrating our St Andrew's Festival on the weekend of 30 November (St Andrew's Day) and 1 December. On the Saturday there will be the Fayre and Hall birthday party (2-5pm) and in the evening (6.30pm-10pm) there will be supper and a ceilidh. (The main course will be fish pie—for St Andrew, of course—with vegetarian alternative). Tickets are available today from Julia: £10 adults, £5 children. On the Sunday we will keep both St Andrew's Day and Advent Sunday (with a bit of creativity...)

John Reynolds writes

The Friends of St Andrew's will be running a stall at the St Andrew's Fayre on Saturday 30 November. In addition to the usual coffee mugs, greetings cards, etc. we would like to sell small home-made Christmas decorations. If artistic members of the congregation would be able to make any that would be appreciated. Home-made cakes would also be welcome.

St Andrew's News & Notices

The Sunday lunch club meets monthly and offers hospitality to those who might otherwise be on their own on Sunday lunchtimes. It relies on a rota of those who prepare and serve the meal and we are very keen to recruit a couple of new teams for this. Can you help please? Have a word with Nick for more information.

If you are interested in leading prayers during 10am services then we'd love to hear from you. Assistance will be given as needed. Speak to Patricia Abrey or send an email to patriciaabrey@ntlworld.com.

Cynthia Bull would appreciate empty jars for marmalade. Please phone her on 322467 to arrange collection or leave under the bench outside 10 Capstan Close.

Please note that the dates for the next Parish Weekend: 3-5 October 2014. Now you can book your cruise without fear of clashing dates.

We are delighted that Bishop Stephen is sending us a new curate next summer. Helen Orr—who is married and has a young family—is currently training at Ridley Hall and will be self-supporting (as Alasdair Coles was). She will be ordained at the same time as Eleanor so there will be double cause for celebration!

Ros Ayres and Tricia Troughton are organising a Spring Break at Launde Abbey, arriving at Launde for afternoon tea on

St Andrew's Hall News

Now that we have received planning permission for the Hall extension our architects (Freeland Rees Roberts) are busy drawing up full plans in order to go out to tender. Our hope and expectation is that work will begin in January/February and be completed in August.

Other News & Notices

Nominations are being sought for this year's Lil Speed Award. Can you think of someone in Chesterton who has made a significant contribution to our community, who should be recognised for their voluntary service? If yes, then please go ahead and nominate them for this year's award! The 2012 award was presented to Elizabeth Newman. Other winners have included Rosemary Tice, Alice Zeitlyn, Derek Stubbings (posthumously), Donald Flory and Lil Speed herself.
