

consciously join our voices with Christians all over the world, for the world. This has been an annual event since 2012, and we have been really pleased that Christians from all over the North Cambridge area have increasingly been a part of this. This year we are particularly aiming this event at all Christians in the area, under the theme of Unity, truly praying with One Voice. We hope that the events planned will be appealing and accessible to all. Please join us! See the flyers at the back of church and on the notice board for more details.

The Faraday Institute for Science and Religion will be holding a weekend course entitled 'Science and Religion: the Big Questions' in Cambridge, 20-22 March. This course offers an introductory overview of the big questions in science and religion, from top speakers in the field.

Philosophers, scientists, historians and theologians will tackle a wide range of topics such as the conflict myth, rationality and knowledge, the nature of matter, God's action in the world, genetics and determinism, the challenge of climate change and ethical challenges in science. Please see www.faraday-institute.org for more information.

22 February 2015

Welcome to St Andrew's today.

The upper voices of New Voices will be leading our singing at Choral Evensong tonight (at 6.30pm).

Today is the first Sunday in Lent. The theme of our Sunday morning sermons is 'Remembering' and Emmanuel, one of our Wescott placements students, is preaching today. See inside for different ways you can keep this holy season.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

We do have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

'When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.'

Genesis 9.16

Please pray for:

- Among the sick, housebound or recovering: Alison Hughes, Pam Fry, Ian Ferguson
- The completion of the Hall development and the start of the church building works
- Our use of Lent
- The new diocesan strategy
- RIP Hilda Tovey, Vera Poulter, Len Rody, Alice O'Connor, Jean Jones, John Lee

From Tricia Troughton

I would like to advertise that there is a special concert happening at West Road Concert Hall today at 7.30pm in aid of Medecin sans Frontiers (very involved in treating cases of Ebola in Africa and elsewhere). Amongst other items, there will be a choir, orchestra and instrumental sections of folk trying out instruments they do not usually play! I play clarinet in the Cambridge Wind Band but I am also playing the cello on this occasion! If you would like to come to the concert, tickets are available from the ADC theatre. And/or if you would like to sponsor me I will have a sponsorship form which you can give through the following link: <http://www.justgiving.com/teams/goatreunion2015>

With many thanks, Tricia

Lent

Suggestions for the season:

- Buy a Lent book: we have some ideas...
- Read the Bible every day with 'Reflections for Lent': Nick will get you a copy for £4 or you can download the app

- Pray with the Melanesian religious communities with one bible verse—see <http://melanesia.anglican.org/mmnews.html>
- Join a Pilgrim group

Coming up

Creative Church will meet again next Sunday at 3.30pm. Join us for a 'Lenten Experience' with music, storytelling, reflective activities, creative response and refreshments.

Linked with our Lenten theme of Remembering are two Sunday evening events (When memory fades) in March. 'Message in the Movies' next Sunday will be watching the film Iris and 'Thinking our Faith' on 8 March will be 'Thinking about dementia'. Both will be at 6.30pm.

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 17 March, at 8 pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing Four Letters of Love, by Niall Williams. 'When I was twelve years old God spoke to my father for the first time. God didn't say much. He told my father to be a painter and left it at that. . . .' So begins Niall Williams' magical tale about love and destiny.... As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

It's not too late to sign up for a group. They begin meeting this week to study the Beatitudes. The Tuesday morning group (10.15-11.45am) will now be meeting at 10 Capstan Close. There are also groups on Tuesday evening and Thursday evening. There is a sign up sheet at the back of church.

St Andrew's News & Notices

The March to May edition of the Chesterton News is now available for distribution. We are still looking for extra help delivering this publication so, if you or anyone you know might be interested in helping out, please speak to Nick or contact me in the Hall office for a list of streets without a distributor. Many thanks.

Rachel Clarke rachel@standrews-hall.co.uk

Come along to a Ceilidh to support The Great Generation who are raising money for teacher training projects in Uganda—on Saturday 7 March from 7 - 11pm at St Andrew's Hall. Tickets are available in the week from the Hall office. £10, Concessions £8, Family (4 tickets) £30 and includes a buffet with wine.

Most years at St Andrew's we have a number of teenagers and adults who are prepared for Baptism and/or Confirmation. If you would like to become a full communicant member of the church then this could be for you! Please have a word with Nick. We also prepare a group of children (from the age of 8) for their First Communion (at Pentecost) and will be giving details of that in the next few weeks.

Mission & Giving News

A huge thank you to all who gave to the Dalit Giving Day last November. The organisation in India say that the greatest need at the moment is for school uniforms and the £1,000 we raised has been used to buy uniforms, including shoes, for 63 children. However, we have now bought one more uniform helping one more child to go to school as someone has let us know that they sent (via the internet, not the actual change) the money raised from their '50p' box. Our new total is, therefore, £1,016: thank you so much everyone. The Free A Dalit Child team in the UK have also said that we have been a big encouragement to them so another thank you!

Other news

Elaine Storkey, Alan Hargrave and Malcolm Guite are among those giving the Lent talks at Michaelhouse this year—Mondays at 1.05pm (soup and bread from 12.45pm). The theme is 'Love's Endeavour, Love's Expense: Exploring Spiritual Journeys'. See the poster at the back for more details.

You may have heard of the One Voice Prayer week. If not, here's a brief explanation. One Voice is a week of prayer (28 February—7 March) where we
