

people with different gifts and vulnerabilities can come together. We build friendships by having everything from tea parties to film nights, and regular times to pray and eat together. Guests are welcome to attend on their own, or with their parents or carers.

We are looking for new residents for September 2015. All the residents have full programmes of work or study outside the house, and pay a market rent.

We share food, laughter and prayer two evenings a week, one Sunday afternoon a month, and the occasional 'film night' with 8-10 people with learning disabilities.

All the residents meet weekly as a community for planning and sharing.

If you would like more information, we would love to hear from you! You would be welcome to come along for an evening event to see how it all works. Please do email our supporters Revd James Gardom (jtdg2@cam.ac.uk) or Revd Debbie Ford (deborahford@gmail.com)

Other news

Public lecture on 'Shakespeare and Religion' by Professor Rowland Wymer, Monday 11 May, 6.30pm, LAB003, Anglia Ruskin Cambridge campus (easiest access is via the Broad Street entrance). This lecture will review the evidence for Shakespeare coming from a Catholic background and retaining Catholic sympathies and will consider how this might affect our reading of his plays and poems.

10 May 2015

Welcome to St Andrew's.

Today is our Stewardship Sunday for this year.

There will be an Iona Service this evening to mark Christian Aid week.

Next Sunday is a mission gift day when we will be hearing about Lyn's House and the work of the l'Arche movement.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

Work on the new disabled toilet continues, but there is now access to the Hall toilets via the new door from the Hall garden—please ask a sidesperson.

We do have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.'

John 15.12

This week

Nick is continuing his History of Christianity course for Open Mind on Wednesday, 10-11.30am, in the Hall.

The Friends of St Andrew's AGM will be held on Ascension Day, Thursday, after Evensong. If you would like to join The Friends, please ask me or Patricia Abrey for more details.

John Reynolds

The next Hard Questions evening will be at Robin and Gill Bickerstaffe's, 9 Cheney Way, CB4 1UE, on Friday. The Hard Question will be - "Are the old failing the young?" The usual contributions of liquid refreshment and / or puddings will be gratefully received. Please let Gill know if you are coming (429943).

Coming up

Eleanor has invited Umbrella Group members to her house in St Neots for our next meeting on Monday 18 May. If you haven't already given your name to Pat Reed and would like to go, please phone her on 01954 202746.

The Hall annual general meeting is on Tuesday 19 May at 7.30pm in the Hall (of course...)

The next book group meeting will be on Tuesday 19 May, at 8 pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing Timbuctu by Paul Auster. The book is a fantasy based on the life of Mr Bones, canine companion to one Willy G. Christmas, a Brooklyn-born poet who has fallen down on his luck. One reviewer has said 'Auster gives us in this short novel all that humanity desires: love, friendship and happiness'. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

Mission & giving news

Is there a country that you would like to pray for, such as Nepal in the wake of the earthquake, or do you know someone working with a mission organisation abroad? Would you like to pray for the organisations that the church supports? Then come and pray with others for them.

This new group will meet for about an hour once a month. The next meeting is on Thursday 21 May at 8pm, meeting at 13 Midwinter Place, Hamilton Road, CB4 1BW. Please either just turn up or if you have any questions please contact me at lesley.mackie@ntlworld.com or tel: 709114.

Lesley Mackie

Two new jobs

St Andrew's is looking to appoint to two paid roles in the coming month, one for a year but full-time (potentially) and one permanent but part-time.

The first role is that of a youth worker & pastoral assistant. The lead part of this role is to develop our church's work with and for young people (14 hours per week), but –given the right person—we are able to make this up to a full-time role by including a pastoral assistant brief that includes work amongst older people and assisting the Hall manager.

The second role is that of communications officer (and assistant parish administrator). This is a part-time role (6 hours per week).

Those appointed will have an office base in the Hall and will be part of the Church staff team that works with the Hall team in serving our local community. Full details are available on the church website: www.standrews-chesterton.org.

Informal approaches to Nick are welcome. St Andrew's operates an equal opportunities policy and is committed to appointing the person who is best able to meet the brief.

St Andrew's News & Notices

The next edition of the Chesterton News for distribution is now available for collection. Unfortunately, due to the building work taking place, the church is shut during the week. If you are not collecting them on a Sunday, then please let me know when you would like to come and I can arrange to bring your bundle/s to the hall for you before you arrive. Many thanks.

Rachel

The funeral of Dr Barbara Reynolds will be on Monday 18 May, 10.30am, at the Crematorium, West Chapel. Some of you will remember Barbara and the first 'Thinking our faith' when she gave us a fine lecture on 'Dorothy L. Sayers as Theologian', also our play-reading under her direction of 'A Divine Justice'. Members of the congregation are invited to attend the funeral and afterwards the gathering at 220 Milton Road.

The existing sidespeople would appreciate additional support at 10am services on 1st and 3rdSundays to start as soon as possible. It involves arriving about 9.30am and staying until things are cleared up at the end, greeting people with a smile and following some simple instructions once a month or as arranged with the rest of your "team". Please speak to a sidesperson, Patricia Abrey or a churchwarden for more details. Thanks. 30 healthy cherry tomato plants, now over 12" or 30cm tall, for sale in aid of the Friends of St Andrews for £1 each. Please place orders with Patricia Abrey patriciaabrey@ntlworld.com on a 1st come, 1st served basis.

Musicians Wanted! It would be great to get a group of musicians together (instrumentalists & singers) to enable worship at some of St Andrews' more occasional services such as Creative Church, Junior Church & Informal Eucharist. Please email miranda.garfoot@gmail.com if interested. All abilities welcome.

Lyn's House

The residents of Lyn's House are a community of four Christian women and men who, together with a wide circle of friends, are providing hospitality and building friendships with people with learning disabilities in and around Cambridge. We are inspired by the worldwide L'Arche movement and seek to provide a hospitable environment where
