Musicians Wanted! It would be great to get a group of musicians together (instrumentalists & singers) to enable worship at some of St Andrews' more occasional services such as Creative Church, Junior Church & Informal Eucharist. Please email miranda.garfoot@gmail.com if interested. All abilities welcome.

Lyn's House

The residents of Lyn's House are a community of four Christian women and men who, together with a wide circle of friends, are providing hospitality and building friendships with people with learning disabilities in and around Cambridge. We are inspired by the worldwide L'Arche movement and seek to provide a hospitable environment where people with different gifts and vulnerabilities can come together. We build friendships by having everything from tea parties to film nights, and regular times to pray and eat together. Guests are welcome to attend on their own, or with their parents or carers. We are looking for new residents for September 2015. All the residents have full programmes of work or study outside the house, and pay a market rent. We share food, laughter and prayer two evenings a week, one Sunday afternoon a month, and the occasional 'film night' with 8-10 people with learning disabilities. All the residents meet weekly as a community for planning and sharing.

If you would like more information, we would love to hear from you! You would be welcome to come along for an evening event to see how it all works. Please do email our supporters Revd James Gardom (itdg2@cam.ac.uk) or Revd Debbie Ford (deborahford@gmail.com)

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

17 May 2015

Welcome to St Andrew's.

Our 10am service begins outside, weather permitting, as we celebrate the Ascension. We are also celebrating the baptism of Richard and Erica's granddaughter, Calliope, AND it is a gift day for Lyn's House and the work of l'Arche. All the cash in today's collection will be included: if you are a taxpayer please uses GiftAid envelopes and write 'Lyn's House' on the front. You can bring some money next week too—but make sure it is in a labelled envelope.

Next Sunday is Pentecost and we will be welcoming a small group of our younger members to their First Communion. We also have a special United Creative Church in the afternoon (see inside).

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

'You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.'

- The continuing building works
- Calliope Murrell, to be baptised today
- Those elected to serve as councillors and members of parliament
- Among the sick, housebound or recovering: Alison Hughes, Pam Fry, Valerie Holroyd
- RIP Barbara Reynolds

This week

The funeral of Dr Barbara Reynolds will be on Monday, 10.30am, at the Crematorium, West Chapel. Some of you will remember Barbara and the first 'Thinking our Faith' when she gave us a fine lecture on 'Dorothy L Sayers as Theologian', also our play-reading under her direction of 'A Divine Justice'. Members of the congregation are invited to attend the funeral and afterwards the gathering at 220 Milton Road.

Eleanor has invited Umbrella Group members to her house in St Neots for their next meeting on Monday. If you haven't already given your name to Pat Reed and would like to go, please phone her on 01954 202746.

Two hall events this week:

On Tuesday it's the Hall annual meeting. Do come along (7pm for 7.30pm, refreshments served) to hear about the life of the Hall and how things are shaping up in the light of the building works, speaking of which...

It's the opening event for the annexe and other new parts of the Hall on Thursday at 12 noon. The Deputy Mayor and the Archdeacon of Cambridge will be coming to do the deed; there will be a buffet lunch and much rejoicing all round. All are welcome but please let Rachel (contact details overleaf) know if you are coming.

On Tuesday it's also the book group. This meets at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). This month they are discussing Timbuctu by Paul Auster. All welcome.

On Thursday evening the mission prayer group will be meeting—see below.

Next Sunday

It's a busy day next Sunday (Pentecost)...

In the afternoon we will be welcoming friends from other local churches to join us for a United Creative Church at 3.30pm, followed by tea in the Hall. All ages are welcome as we come together in song, prayer, reflection and creative activity to celebrate our common life in the Spirit.

Mission & giving news

Is there a country that you would like to pray for, such as Nepal in the wake of the earthquakes, or do you know someone working with a mission organisation abroad? Would you like to pray for the organisations that the church supports? Then come and pray with others for them.

This new group will meet for about an hour once a month. The next meeting is on Thursday 21 May at 8pm, meeting at 13 Midwinter Place, Hamilton Road, CB4 1BW. Please either just turn up or if you have any questions please contact me at Lesley.mackie@ntlworld.com or tel: 709114.

Azul Wasi news

The Pudding and Wine Evening was a great success. We had a very pleasant evening and raised an amazing £1,245! As this is probably more than we need for the dental treatment and oral hygiene training, we will use some of it to boost the fund for the monthly payments we send for the food for the children. A number of people were disappointed to miss it, so we will organise another such evening during the summer to help towards the food fund.

Coming events for Azul Wasi: Junior Church will be holding a cake sale on Sunday 14 June.

Sponsored Walk (about 10 miles) on Sunday 19 July - if you would like to take part or sponsor, please contact Mary Pountain (mary.pountain@gmail.com, 311055).

Two new jobs

St Andrew's is looking to appoint to two paid roles in the coming month, one for a year but full-time (potentially) and one permanent but part-time.

The first role is that of a youth worker & pastoral assistant. The lead part of this role is to develop our church's work with and for young people (14 hours per week), but – given the right person—we are able to make this up to a full-time role by including a pastoral assistant brief that includes work amongst older people and assisting the Hall manager.

The second role is that of communications officer (and assistant parish administrator). This is a part-time role (6 hours per week).

Those appointed will have an office base in the Hall and will be part of the Church staff team that works with the Hall team in serving our local community. Full details are available on the church website: www.standrews-chesterton.org. Closing date for applications is Monday.

Informal approaches to Nick are welcome. St Andrew's operates an equal opportunities policy and is committed to appointing the person who is best able to meet the brief.

St Andrew's News & Notices

Many thanks to all Chesterton News distributors who have already taken and delivered the June edition of the magazine. We still have a list of streets currently without anyone to deliver them (e.g. Logans Way and parts of Scotland Road and Milton Road). If you think you might be able to help, please speak to Nick or contact me rachel@standrews-hall.co.uk and we can let you know the areas which we still need help with. Many thanks.

Rachel

The existing sidespeople would appreciate additional support at 10am services on 1st and 3rd Sundays to start as soon as possible. It involves arriving about 9.30am and staying until things are cleared up at the end, greeting people with a smile and following some simple instructions once a month or as arranged with the rest of your "team". Please speak to a sidesperson, Patricia Abrey or a churchwarden for more details. Thanks. 30 healthy cherry tomato plants, now over 12" or 30cm tall, for sale in aid of the Friends of St Andrews for £1
