Other news

Chesterton Methodist Church and Cam Sight are working together on ideas to transform their premises and are inviting people to come and meet representatives of the church, Cam Sight, and the architects. The meetings are this week: Thursday 22 October, 7pm – 8.30pm, and Friday 23 October, 3pm – 5pm. They would be delighted if you were able to pop along for a while.

St Luke's Church of England Primary school is one of only 8 schools to have been nominated to receive much needed funds of up to £25,000 to renovate our playground from the One Family Community Awards. The nomination with the most votes wins; it's as simple as that! Please vote for St Luke's Primary School - Playground Redevelopment at www.foundation.onefamily.com. Every vote counts, so please consider supporting us.

You are invited to the third Charity Canvas Art Exhibition entitled 'Stuff of Life', organised by White House Arts. Saturday 14 and Sunday 15 November, 10.30am to 4pm at The Granary, Stapleford, CB22 5BP. All proceeds will be divided between the local charity, Rowan, and Practical Action's weaving project in Bolivia and Peru. The exhibition will be of over 300 canvases produced by professionals, amateurs and novices, and will include a huge variety of media and styles (painting, embroidery, patchwork, mixed media etc.). All canvases will be for sale anonymously for £45 at the exhibition. There will be live music, refreshments and free parking during the exhibition at this exciting venue. More information can be found at www.whitehousearts.co.uk and www.staplefordgranary.org.uk.

Presenting work in a variety of media, Art makes you powerful highlights the transforming power of the visual arts. This exhibition, created by learning-disabled people at Rowan, explores how art has the power to develop confidence, self-esteem and wellbeing. During this exhibition Rowan will launch a new film. Made by students from the Film and Television course at Cambridge Regional College's Red Chair Productions, this film aims to provide an insight into Rowan's work and to promote the value of the arts. Admission is free, all welcome. Special event and film launch: Saturday 24 October 2–4pm; Exhibition 19 – 24 October, 12–4pm at Rowan, 40 Humberstone Road.

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

18 October 2015

Welcome to St Andrew's.

Via a large scaffolding tower high level works have been carried out this week—installing two new speakers and removing the old ones, and replacing all the light bulbs (which is why it may see a little brighter today!).

Don't forget that today is your last chance to complete the worship and music survey (full details inside). There are forms at the back - it only takes a couple of minutes to fill them in but you will need to leave them in the box today.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

'Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord.'

This week

The Youth Faith and Film discussion group (16 years +) will be relaunching after the morning service at 11.30am today. Come to Room 1 in the Hall for croissants, film clips and inspiring discussion (finishing between 12.15 and 12.30).

The Flower Group meets on Friday in St Andrew's Hall at 2pm. The arrangement this month is a low table arrangement using just 2 different coloured flowers.

The second Lunchtime Concert organised by the Friends of St Andrew's is on Friday in the Church, 12.30pm-1.15pm. This week Robert Cross and the Alpha Choir will be performing. Admission is free with a retiring collections for the Friends. Next week Chris Pountain will be giving an organ recital.

The Big Draw will be on Saturday in St Andrew's Hall, 10 am to 4pm. It will be a day of drawing fun for all ages – do drop in! We'll be exploring the theme 'Every drawing tells a story' in lots of ways throughout the hall and annexe. This year there will also be quiet drawing space upstairs and bookable artist-led workshops for teens and adults, including 'Drawing in the Church' (mixed media) with local tutor

Denise Spalding 1.30–3pm. For full details, please visit www.thebigdraw.org (search 'Chesterton'). We'd also be very grateful of extra help on the day. If you could help for a short time, please let Deborah Bick know (bigdrawchesterton@gmail.com).

Next month

On Sunday 1 November we will be having our annual remembering service at 4pm—on the eve of All Souls, we remember our loved ones who have died and have the opportunity to lay flowers in a small garden of remembrance around the altar.

Sunday 8 November is Remembrance Day. We have a service of Remembrance in the morning and at 6.30pm a Eucharist with New Voices singing Fauré's Requiem.

On Sunday 22 November Chris and Mary Pountain will be leading a Thinking our Faith evening (6.30pm in the Hall annexe) about their musical pilgrimage to Compostela: Camino light—a musical way to Santiago.

During November we will be running a series of sermons and events called Grave Talk. On Friday 13 November in the Hall there will be an opportunity to meet informally for about an hour at 12.30pm (food available from food4food cafe) or at 8pm (coffee and cake) to talk and share thoughts about some of the big questions concerning death, dying and funerals.

The weekend of 28-29 November is our patronal festival—St Andrew's Weekend. The St Andrew's Fayre will be in the Hall on the Saturday, 2-5pm (with a youth opera concert in the church at 4pm). On the Sunday evening will be our special service of music and readings for Advent and St Andrewtide.

Parish weekend

Just a reminder that the next Church Weekend at Belsey Bridge is from Friday 29 April - Sunday 1 May 2016 (Bank Holiday weekend)..... more details of speaker and theme - and application forms will appear soon.

Coming up...

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 1 December, at 8pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing The Light Between Oceans by M. L. Stedman. 'A boat washes up on the shore of a remote lighthouse keeper's island. It holds a dead man - and a crying baby. The only two islanders, Tom and his wife Izzy, are about to make a devastating decision...' The book asks lots of questions about guilt, grief, sacrifice, morality, love, marriage, parenthood, loss, time, change, duty, truth. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

Transforming Work

Transforming Work brings together a group of Christians who want to make a difference where they work. It combines eight group sessions spaced over a year with opportunities in between to reflect, pray and try things out... leaving time for discoveries to be made, changes to occur and for God to do what only God can do.

Dorothy Peyton Jones will be running a group as part of her work for Chaplaincy to People at Work. Dates are Tuesdays 10 November and 8 December. To sign up for the group, or for more information contact Dorothy at dorothy@workplacechaplaincy.org.uk or 07503 746 520. You can also look up the course materials on www.licc.org.uk/tw

St Andrew's, our musical content, the role of the choirs and our inclusion of children and young people.

Chris Lamaison will be aggregating the results very shortly and the findings will be given to Nick and the PCC – so they won't know who has said what! A summary of results will be published for all to read.

There is still time this week to complete a survey if you haven't already done so, but the cut-off date is today. Either pick up a copy from the back of church, fill it in and place it in the box (today if possible!), or you can find an electronic copy on our new look church website (www.standrews-chesterton.org) which you can fill out and return electronically — just email it to cal@camres.co.uk. Please use multiple copies if other family members would like to contribute their individual views and comments.

Junior Church: Help needed!

A different request this time—Junior Church is looking for a smiling face! Could you welcome the children on 2nd/4th Sundays, making sure they are signed in and that the attendance lists are up-to-date? You would need to be present from 9.45am until shortly after 10am (when you would be free to come into church if you want to). Please have a word with Helen if
