- RIP Kenneth O'Dell, Pam Fry

This week

There will be a Meet the Author Book evening on Friday at 7.30pm in the Hall with local author and member of our congregation, Emily Winslow, author of the Cambridge-set crime novels The Whole World, The Start of Everything, and The Red House. Emily will be speaking about what it's like to set novels in a real place, how to juggle the expectations and subtle vocabulary mismatches of both a US and UK audience, and how Cambridge has inspired her. Her books, which are told by multiple first-person narrators including two series detectives, have been called "brilliant" (The Washington Post), "vivid" (Parade magazine) and "dazzling" (Shelf Awareness). Despite Emily's cheerful life as a home schooling mum, master crime writer Sophie Hannah calls her "a precise and expert analyst of the darkest parts of the human psyche". Wine & refreshments will be served and books will be available for sale. Tickets (£4) available from St Andrew's Hall or at the door.

Coming up...

The next meeting of Hard Questions will be on Friday 22 January at 43 Highfield Avenue, CB4 2AJ, at the usual time of 7.30pm. We will be hosting a Burns Supper and Ceilidh in the Hall, on Saturday 23 January, 6.30pm, complete with pipers, haggis, neeps and tatties, followed by a ceilidh (all dances will be called, so no need for any prior knowledge!). Tickets are available (until 17th Jan) from Maggie Tate or Rachel in the office during the week. £8 for adults, £5 for under 12s, please give any dietary requirements when you purchase tickets.

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 2 February at 8 pm at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing The Children Act, by Ian McEwan. A brief resume: 'Fiona Maye, a leading High Court judge, is called on to try an urgent case. For religious reasons, a seventeen-year-old boy is refusing the medical treatment that could save his life. Time is running out...'. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

10 January 2016

Welcome to St Andrew's.

Tonight is our special Epiphany Procession where this year's lucky three get to dress even more splendidly than usual... Come along and join the wise men in their journey. The service has been restructured a bit this year and includes the renewal of the covenant (borrowed from the Methodist tradition).

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

We do have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

'Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you.'
Isaiah 43.1-2
