

the Jungle so they may begin to tell their own stories. Above all, this project is about empowerment. It is about giving those who have been systematically stripped of their futures control over how they are now presented to the world. The project will work with 5-7 people and was initially planned for March 2016. At the moment, the timescale is up in the air because of the ongoing eviction. For more information as well as some very interesting articles and photographs, see Rob's website: <http://www.robpinney.com/the-jungle-through-my-eyes>.

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

28 February 2016

Welcome to St Andrew's on this third Sunday of Lent.

This morning's 10am service includes anointing and the laying on of hands for healing and, in particular during this Lenten season, for forgiveness.

Please come for coffee in the Hall afterwards.

This evening the New Voices choir will be singing at Choral Evensong.

Next week is Mothering Sunday and flowers will be distributed at our 10am All-age Communion.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

We do have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

'Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy?'

Please pray for:

- Among the sick, housebound or recovering: Alison Hughes, Valerie Holroyd
- Our keeping of Lent as a time of prayer, reflection and fasting
- John & Rachel Waters translating the Bible amongst the Kurdish peoples of Northern Iraq (our recent gift day)
- RIP Hugh Dawson

Today

After the service this morning, Emmanuel and Fauzia will be selling craft work by a group of women in Lahore, Pakistan. These women are survivors of domestic violence and are using their talents to support themselves and their families. Please be generous in giving so that these disadvantaged women can look forward to a better life.

Ideas for Lent

Tricia Troughton's Open Mind course in the Hall, Painting to music through Lent, has three more sessions to go. Tuesdays 1/8/15 March, 1.45-3.45pm. (Cost: £4 per session.) The group will explore various themes of Lent and spring-time through music and respond using the simplest of media which will be supplied. No experience or particular talent needed - do come and enjoy some quiet reflective sessions.

Reflections for Lent offers a simple way to make space for Bible study and reflection from Ash Wednesday (10 February) to Easter Saturday (26 March 2015). This app provides a chance to try the readings from best-selling Reflections for Daily Prayer app. Each day (excluding Sundays) it provides daily Bible readings, a reflection by a leading author, and a prayer for the day. It also includes over 3 hours of audio, which features best-selling authors Paula Gooder, Andrew Davison, Martyn Percy and Steven Croft reading their own reflections. Download from App Store or Google Play. (£2.99) One of the authors was in the congregation last week!

The Lent groups this week move on to week two of the Pilgrim course on the Eucharist. The three evening groups all have good numbers but could squeeze in an extra if you'd like to come; the daytime group is full to bursting.

This Week

This year's Women's World Day of Prayer service takes place at St Laurence's Church, Milton Road on Friday at 2.30pm. The women of Cuba have put together this year's service and it is called 'Receive Children, Receive Me'. So we will learn about the lives of children in Cuba but also about adults and about the Cuban way of life and its culture. It is a fascinating island with a rich and varied history and much in the news because of negotiations to lift the trade embargo imposed by the United States. Six of the churches in the North area of Cambridge take part in this service, which welcomes all who would like to come – not only women!

On Saturday dads and kids will be preparing for Mothering Sunday in the church. Please note the change of time—we'll be gathering at 2pm. All welcome!

Coming up...

Saturday 19 March, concert by the pupils of Thomas's Clapham School, London. 11am -12noon in the church. Admission free. Retiring collection for The Friend's of St Andrew's. Help required for stewarding this event. There will be 40/50 children taking part. Please let me know if you are able to assist. John Reynolds

We are booking up fast for the Parish Weekend (Friday 29 April to Sunday 1 May). Booking forms are available at the back of church. Please take one today, fill it in and return it to Patricia Abrey. The earlier you book, the more likely it is that we'll be able to give you your ideal room! Please return forms by the end of this month.

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 5 April, at 8 pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing Nora Webster by Colm Tóibín. A brief description: 'Nora Webster is recently widowed and lives with her two young sons in a small town on the east coast of Ireland. Within Nora is a strength and, through the discovery of music and the gift of friendship, she finds a way to live again...' As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

St Andrew's News

Sidespeople are needed for additional Easter services: Good Friday (25 March) at 12.20pm for All Age prayer stations, then at 2pm the Last Hour plus 8pm on Easter Eve (Saturday 26 March) for the choral Easter Vigil. Additional support on Easter Day at 10am also welcome please. Speak to Patricia Abrey or email patriciaabrey@ntlworld.com or the churchwardens. Thank you

The Chesterton Festival 2016 begins on Saturday 18 June with the Community Fun Day on Pye's Rec., 1 - 5pm, and there will be other events throughout the following week until Sunday 26 June. Brown's Field will host a Family Band Night Friday 24 June. If you are interested in taking part in the Festival this year then participation forms are available from the Hall Office.

Great St Mary's are holding a series of Lent Talks. They have some really interesting speakers in this year's series of lunchtime talks on the theme of FAITH SHAPING - exploring how the experience of people in the past can form our faith in the present. The talks are as usual on Monday lunchtimes at 1pm during Lent at Michaelhouse. See the poster on the church noticeboard for the list of speakers.

Singing from the Centre, a celebration of singing for health and well-being, in Michaelhouse, Trinity Street, 11 and 12 March; including a talk by Professor Odell-Miller, a concert, and workshops led by Anne Taylor and Hannah Conway. For information email: assistantmanager@michaelhouse.org.uk.
