

The Diocese of Ely are organising two evening events in June:

Talking Jesus is on Tuesday 14 June, 7.30pm, at St Barnabas Church, Mill Road. Dr Rachael Jordan (the National Adviser for Mission and Evangelism for the Church of England) will reflect on where to begin when talking about faith in the UK.

Emerging Pioneers is on Wednesday 22 June, 7.30pm, at Ramsey Methodist Church, High Street, Ramsey, PE26 1AA. Thinking about starting a Fresh Expression of Church but unsure how and where to start? Come and meet Ed Olsworth-Peter. To book on to either or both event(s) please email mission@elydiocese.org

Cohousing in Cambridge

We are a group of 25 households that have recently gained planning permission to build Cambridge's first cohousing community on Orchard Park. Cohousing is an intentional community where people own their own houses but share garden space and a common house where they come together to socialise, do activities and eat. We are looking for people to join us and have all size properties available from 1 bed flats to 5 bed houses. For more information see www.cambridge-k1.co.uk or www.facebook.com/CambridgeK1CoHousingProject or email miranda.garfoot@gmail.com

A Conference on our common future & climate change in the UK and the developing world organised by the Vellore Link group of Churches Together in Cambridge, supported by Christian Aid and endorsed by Rowan Williams. Speakers include Christian Aid, the Diocese of Vellore South India, Anglian Water and local farmers. It will be on Saturday 18 June, 10am-4pm, at St Ives Free Church (use guided bus). The cost is £10, including lunch. Contact lilywhymer@gmail.com

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

22 May 2016

Welcome to St Andrew's Church on this Trinity Sunday. We continue our Summer sermon series Creation speaks with this week's theme: "Consider the moon and the stars". This evening there will be a service of Choral Evensong, with New Voices, to which you are all warmly invited.

Next Sunday morning there will be a choice of services at 10am—Parish Communion in Church and an informal all-age Communion in the Hall. You are welcome to attend either.

Everyone is very welcome to stay for coffee after the service.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

Gluten-free wafers are available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

'For I will consider thy heavens, even the works of thy fingers : the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained.'

This week

The 20's/30's fellowship group is on Tuesday, 7.45pm, at the Widdows' house (9 Hertford St). All are welcome.

The House Group meet on Tuesday, 8pm, at the house of Helen Druiff (43 Highfield Avenue).

Next Sunday evening's Message in the Movies will be Selma, the story of Martin Luther King's campaign for equal votes and his epic march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama in 1965. The film will start at 6.30pm prompt; there will be a chance to talk about its themes over a glass of something and we will be wrapped up by 9.15pm.

Coming up...

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 7 June, at 8 pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing The Man Who Went into the West: The Life of R.S. Thomas, by Byron Rogers. This biography of Wales's national poet and vicar, R.S. Thomas, has been hailed as a 'masterpiece', even as a work of 'genius', by reviewers from Craig Brown to the Archbishop of Canterbury. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

There will be Welcome drinks for Newcomers in church on Sunday 12 June at 11.45am. If you have joined the church in the last 6 months (or have been coming for longer than that, but missed the last newcomers' drinks in January), please come along for a glass of sherry or juice and to hear about the opportunities for becoming involved in groups and other activities at St Andrew's.

St Andrew's News

The June to August edition of the Chesterton News is now available for collection at the back of the church. Thank you to all those who volunteer their time to deliver, but if, for any reason, you are unable to do so this time please do email me rachel@standrews-hall.co.uk

Help urgently needed: We are seeking someone to kindly come and help set up any time from 8.15/8.30am at St Andrew's Hall on Thursdays during term time for our Church Mice group. Helen or Maggie can show anyone who is able to volunteer what needs to be put out. Anyone willing to help please contact Helen on helen.orr@standrews-chesterton.org.

We thought many of you would like to know that Julie Parfitt has moved from New Court to Edward House in Albion Row (part of the Edward Storey Foundation). She would love to receive visitors from her St Andrew's friends.

Calendars for May to August are available at the back—do take one and learn about our summer programme of worship and activities at St Andrew's.

The Bishop of Huntingdon is coming to St Andrew's for a Baptism and Confirmation service on Thursday 7 July. If you are interested in exploring baptism and/or confirmation, please do have a word with one of the clergy. Confirmation in the Church of England is an opportunity to reaffirm for ourselves the promises made at our baptism and to enter full membership of the church.

Azul Wasi News

Copies of the Spring Newsletter are available at the back of the church. If you would like to receive these (twice a year) by email, please let Mary know.

We have two fundraising events planned:

In June, St Andrew's Church will have been supporting Azul Wasi for 10 years and we have raised over £76,000! We are holding a 10th Anniversary Pudding and Wine Evening, on Sunday 5 June, 7.30pm-10pm, at our house (13 Leys Road) to celebrate. No tickets needed, but please let Mary know if you plan to come. We will supply wine and puddings, but any offers of puddings won't be refused - please let us know in advance if you want to bring one!

'St Andrew's has Talent' will be on Saturday 17 September, 7.30pm, at St Andrew's Hall. Whatever your talent is – musical, dramatic, or creative – this will be an opportunity to share your talent with others, or you can just come and enjoy the amazing range of talents at St Andrew's.

The Chesterton Festival 2016 begins on Friday 17 June with the Friends lunchtime concert; the Community Fun Day is on Saturday 18 June, 1 - 5pm, and there will be other events throughout the following week until Sunday 26 June. Brown's Field will
