

have raised over £76,000! We are holding a 10th Anniversary Pudding and Wine Evening, tonight (Sunday 5 June), 7.30pm-10pm, at our house (13 Leys Road) to celebrate. No tickets needed, but please let Mary know if you plan to come. We will supply wine and puddings, but any offers of puddings won't be refused - please let us know in advance if you want to bring one!

'St Andrew's has Talent' Saturday 17 September, 7.30pm at St Andrew's Hall. Whatever your talent is – musical, dramatic, or creative – this will be an opportunity to share your talent with others, or you can just come and enjoy the amazing range of talents at St Andrew's.

Other news

The Bishop of Ely is calling for nominations for the 2016 Etheldreda Medal, awarded to individuals who have given generous and outstanding service which would otherwise not be recognised. The Cambridge Historic Churches Trust is seeking a volunteer to organise its annual bike ride. For more information on both of these requests, please see the noticeboard at the back of church.

We are a group of 25 households that have recently gained planning permission to build Cambridge's first cohousing community on Orchard Park. Cohousing is an intentional community where people own their own houses but share garden space and a common house where they come together to socialise, do activities and eat. We are looking for people to join us and have all size properties available from 1 bed flats to 5 bed houses. ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

5 June 2016

Welcome to St Andrew's church.

At the All-age Communion we are continuing our summer sermon series Creation speaks with this week's theme: "consider the ant". Tonight, at 6.30pm we have a (short) United service in church. At 7.30pm, Mary and Chris Pountain are hosting a 10th Anniversary Pudding and Wine Evening to celebrate 10 years of fundraising for Azul Wasi. Please let Mary know if you are planning to come along (C 311055 or mary.pountain@gmail.com)

Everyone is very welcome to stay for coffee after the service.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

We do have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

'Go to the ant, you lazybones; consider its ways, and be wise.'

This week

The 20s/30s fellowship group is on Tuesday, 7.45pm, at the Widdows' house (9 Hertford St). All welcome.

The Book Group will also meet on Tuesday, 8pm at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing The Man Who Went into the West: The Life of R.S. Thomas, by Byron Rogers. This biography of Wales's national poet and vicar, R.S. Thomas, has been hailed as a 'masterpiece', even as a work of 'genius', by reviewers from Craig Brown to the Archbishop of Canterbury. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

On Friday, 12.30-1.15pm, The Montague Quartet will be giving a concert as part of the Friends of St Andrew's summer concert series. Do come and support this event.

Next Sunday

There will be Welcome drinks for Newcomers in church next Sunday 12 June at 11.45am. If you have joined the church in the last 6 months (or have been coming for longer than that, but missed the last newcomers' drinks in January), please come along for a glass of sherry or juice and to hear about the opportunities for becoming involved in groups and other activities at St Andrew's.

Thinking our Faith returns next Sunday evening. James Orr will be leading our thinking under the title 'Sharks, Nazis, and natural theology: how to develop a reasoning faith'.

St Andrew's will have a busy weekend of activities in two weeks' time. Please support these by coming and also, if you can, by helping. In particular, we need stewards from 1pm to 5pm, Friday to Sunday (please sign up on the list at the back of church) and some able bodied (!) help shifting staging and tables at 8am on Saturday 18th (offers to Nick please).

Chesterton Festival: 17-19 June weekend

There will be other events throughout the following week until Sunday 26 June. Brown's Field will host a Family Band Night on Friday 24 June.

St Andrew's News

Planned giving envelopes for 5 June 2016 to 28 May 2017 are available for collection at the back of church today. Many thanks.

Ruth Jones

Thank you to everyone for your support and prayers over the past six months, since Daisy's very early birth and extended stay in four hospitals. It has been very difficult at times, but knowing that there were so many at St Andrew's praying for her was so comforting. We are delighted to report that she is doing well, has no long-term issues and is now six times her birth weight of 1lb 8oz - a wonderful answer to prayers.

Ellen and Michael John Gifford

Two recent moves to report:

Margaret Gates has moved from Chesterton to be nearer family. The parish office has her address if you would like to write to her.

Julie Parfitt has moved from New Court to Edward House (one of the Edward Storey Foundation homes) on Mount Pleasant. She would be delighted to see old St Andrew's friends.

The Mission and Giving Group are very pleased to report that we raised a total of £442.95 for the Children's Society (collection at the Christingle service and candlebox collections) and £707.82 for Bible translations in Iraq (Mission and Giving Sunday in February).

There are still a number of bundles of the June to August edition of the Chesterton News awaiting collection at the back of church.

The Bishop of Huntingdon is coming to St Andrew's for a Baptism and Confirmation service on Thursday 7 July. If you are interested in exploring baptism and/or
