18 June 2017

Welcome to St Andrew's on this Chesterton Festival Sunday. We begin our Jonah sermon series today, visually enhanced by the magnificent scenery and flower displays! There will be a service of short Communion following the Family service (with thanksgiving for Ellie Fleming) this morning, and everyone is welcome for coffee in the Hall. This afternoon, as well as the flower display in the church, there will be a church and churchyard tour at 2.30pm, led by Nick. Then at 4pm, come and join Songs of Praise in church. All are very welcome! At 5.30pm the Youth Group will be having a special Festival Youth Night in the Hall.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying, 'Go at once to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out against it.'

This week...

From Monday to Thursday, at 4pm each day in church, as part of Chesterton Festival, T S Eliot's The Four Quartets will be read by Pauline Davison, Keith Brown, Susan and Peter Hilken. Each reading will be preceded by a short introduction and will last about 30 minutes.

The Book Club will meet on Tuesday, 8pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing The Dean's Watch, by Elizabeth Goudge. Set in a mid-nineteenth-century town in Fens, it tells the tale of an unlikely friendship between the Cathedral Dean and an obscure watchmaker, which leads to an unusual spiritual awakening that touches the entire community. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

Chesterton Festival event: Nature in our neighbourhood walk is on Wednesday, 6.20pm. This is a walk in the churchyard with Cambridge Natural History Society. Gather at Church Street entrance to churchyard. Wear shoes for uneven and possibly muddy ground.

On Saturday, 4pm, our Youth choir (including some former members and friends) will be performing Jonah-Man Jazz, a cantata-musical in the church, followed by refreshments. Do come along to support them!

Coming up...

Valerie Holroyd's funeral will be on the afternoon of Monday 26 June (time to be confirmed). Next week's Choral Evensong will also be in memory of Valerie.

On Sunday 2 July our new curate, Kathryn Waite, will be ordained deacon at Ely Cathedral (at 10.30am). Nick, Bridget and others will be there to support her—and others would be welcome to come (ask Nick if you'd like a lift).

Kathryn Waite writes

I was born and brought up in Folkestone on the Kent coast. I went to medical school at the Royal Free Hospital in London before house jobs in Rugby and King's Lynn. We moved to Cambridge nearly 20 years ago for senior house officer jobs and we have not moved since! Up until the end of March this year I have been working as a Consultant Clinical Oncologist specialising in thoracic cancers, working part time between the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, King's Lynn and Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge along with some undergraduate teaching. Nearly 6 years ago I felt (surprisingly to me) that God was calling me into Ordained Ministry and I have been studying for the last three years on the ERMIC (Eastern Regional Ministry Course) with weekly evening classes for two of those years at St Andrew's! I am married to Dave and we have one 14 year old daughter, Charlotte. In my free time (what there is of it) I love to sing and cycle. I am very much looking forward to serving at St Andrew's and getting to know you all.

Also on 2 July, Nick will be leading a St Andrew's/St Clement's heritage walk beginning at 4pm on Castle Hill, moving down to St Clement's for tea and cake. There will be a sign-up list on the noticeboard.

St Andrew's News

Next Sunday will be Bridget's last Sunday morning with us. She will be preaching at the 10am service. Please stay for farewell refreshments in the Hall afterwards.

Reminder: Please put the Parish Weekend date in your diary—Friday 22 to Sunday 24 September 2017. Booking forms are now available! Please take one.

Calling musicians, young and old! If you might be interested in being part of our worship band for the next informal evening services (9 July and 13 August), please speak to Maggie Tate or email maggie.tate@standrews-chesterton.org. All instruments welcome, we would love you to join us.

Hall News

The trip to the Henry Moore Foundation will now be taking place Thursday 29 June. We will leave St Andrew's Church at 10am and return by 6pm. Tickets will cost £23 and will include the coach journey and a guided tour of the studios and gardens and a special look at the summer exhibition Becoming Henry Moore. For more information or if you would like to be added to the waiting list, please contact Rachel in the Hall Office, 306150 or rachel@standrews-hall.co.uk
