

services in the community. We have services and support people in Ely, Little Downham, Milton, Histon and Chesterton at present which means we are recruiting constantly to keep up with demand. We are holding a Recruitment Open Day on 25th September at our Milton site and it would be brilliant if we could get some other local people involved with promoting it to encourage people to attend and therefore consider a really rewarding career with us! It is notoriously challenging to attract the right people into the sector, but I'm determined to make a big splash and get The Edmund Trust out there in the public eye. Any help you may have in promoting us would be greatly appreciated. We will be holding a free certified course during the day which people can then add to their CV, along with an interview to each person who attends, as well as a chance to speak to members of our brilliant team and some of the people we currently support. We will also have lots of yummy cakes and refreshments! I look forward to hearing from you if you think you can possibly help? Any suggestions, ideas, would be hugely appreciated! I have just started in the role and it's all a bit new to me, but I am enjoying making new connections so that we can continue to get the right people in the job to help the vulnerable people in our communities live fulfilled, enriched lives, regardless of their disabilities.

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

2 September 2018

Welcome to St Andrew's Church for our All-Age Communion service this morning. We hope you have enjoyed your summer. We have lots to look forward to in the next 4 months—please pick up a term card at the back of church.

Next week we are observing Education Sunday when we will be praying especially for all involved in the world of education and also for Junior Church leaders and members (who should note that we start in Church next Sunday before going over to the Hall)

Everyone is very welcome to stay for coffee in Church after the service.

We have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

'On that day the deaf shall hear the words of a scroll, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see.'

This week

Art and the Bible Story: This term the Tuesday group will be using pictures from the National Gallery as well as passages from Scripture as the starting point for our reflections and discussions. We meet alternate Tuesdays and will be having our first meeting this coming Tuesday at 10.30am in the Hall annexe. Everyone is very welcome even if you are not able to come along to every session.

The Book Club will be on Tuesday, 8 pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel 367351). We will be discussing The Trouble with Goats and Sheep, by Joanna Cannon. 'Mrs Creasy is missing and The Avenue is alive with whispers. As the summer shimmers endlessly on, ten-year-olds Grace and Tilly decide to take matters into their own hands.....' As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

Church Mice starts up again on Thursday, 9.15-11.15am, in the Hall.

Coming up...

New On Saturday 15 September at 5pm Anna Marmion (soprano) and Chris Pountain (piano) present a recital of music connected with Venice, a city which has inspired many composers throughout the centuries. The programme will include song cycles by Fauré and Hahn, and operatic arias. Free admission but with a retiring collection to help fund Anna's postgraduate studies at Trinity Laban College of Music, which she begins in September.

New Our next Gift day is on Sunday 16 September and will be in aid of A Rocha. A Rocha UK is a Christian charity working for the protection and restoration of the natural world. We are delighted that Chris Naylor is coming to speak at our Family service. Chris has been Executive Director of A Rocha since April 2010. He joined A Rocha in 1997 working, until 2009, as Lebanon Director where he co-founded the work. He oversaw the habitat restoration programme at the Aammiq marsh, the development of the environmental education project and the field research programme; identifying 11 new Important Bird Areas nationally. Prior to joining A Rocha, Chris had a wide experience of science teaching and schools' management in the UK and the Middle East, attending Bible College and learning Arabic (in Jordan) along the way. Chris has written a book, Postcards from the Middle East: How our family fell in love with the Arab world published by Lion Hudson in March 2015. There is a video of him talking about his work in Lebanon on <https://vimeo.com/137807328>. Please come ready to give generously.

New The Umbrella Group will be having Afternoon Tea at The Arundel on Thursday 20 September. The Tea must be ordered beforehand, so please give your names to Ursula or Pat Read Tel: 01954 202746 or email: john2pat@hotmail.com

St Andrew's News

Do you have a re-usable coffee cup? We throw away 2.5 billion disposable coffee cups every year in the UK, fewer than 1 percent of which are recycled because of the plastic film liner on the inside. Here at St Andrew's, we use recyclable cups when serving coffee in church on the first Sunday of the month, but have you thought of bringing your own cup? See <https://www.churchofengland.org/more/policy-and-thinking/our-views/environment-and-climate-change> or <http://arocha.org.uk/our-activities/living-lightly-take-action/> for more ideas on what we can do to live lives that are just and fair and that respect this beautiful world God has made.

The next 'Party with a Purpose' event, which is now part of the Diocese of Ely Vocations Strategy, will on Thursday 20 September, 7.00pm to 9.00pm, at Bishop Woodford House, Ely. It is a relaxed social evening event (with a buffet) explaining the process of becoming an LLM or Ordained Minister. All who may be considering Church ministry are welcome. A poster giving all the details can be found on the notice board at the back of the church.

The Diocesan Safeguarding Team are running a C0 Basic Awareness course at the Diocesan Office in Ely on Friday 21 September (10am -12pm) for those who cannot access the course online. C0 – Basic Awareness is recommended for anyone who needs a basic level of awareness of safeguarding and is a pre-requisite for attendance to further courses. Anyone wishing to attend, please book via Sarah King (Diocesan Safeguarding Officer) sarah.king@elydiocese.org or 01353 652735.

Can you help? If you would like to learn more about leading intercessions at 10am Sunday services then we'd love to enable you to do that, whether old or young or in between. Please contact the churchwardens or Patricia Abrey patriciaabrey@ntlworld.com

Other News

A Farewell Service for Bishop David and Jean is being held on Sunday 23 September at 4pm in Ely Cathedral. Everyone is very welcome to this service. Although RSVP's are not required, if you are planning to attend it would be helpful if you let Linda know so that we can give approximate numbers to the Cathedral. There are invitation flyers at the back of church.

Fr Robert Eccles has been holding a series of conversations on the Acts of the Apostles on Wednesdays at 7.30pm at St Laurence's in Milton Road; these will resume on 12 September. They are lively, informal and friendly - and extremely helpful (each ends with a glass of wine). He would welcome anyone else from St Andrew's, and be delighted to see them.

I work for The Edmund trust, a charity which has been established for over 70 years, supporting people with learning disabilities. We support people in their own homes or in residential settings to help live fulfilled lives and gain independence. We have experienced a 40% growth over the past 3 years and this is going to continue as more and more people look to secure our
