ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

30 September 2018

Welcome to St Andrew's Church. This morning there are two services to choose from: Parish Communion in church and Informal Communion in the hall, so please take your pick. At 5.30pm everyone is invited to come to Message in the Movies in the Hall.

Next week is Harvest Festival. Please see inside for more information.

Everyone is very welcome to stay for coffee in the hall after the service.

We have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

'My hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens; when I summon them, they stand at attention.'

Today...

Message in the Movies returns this evening, 5.30pm, in the Hall annexe. In preparation for the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War, we will be watching and discussing 'Journey's End', R C Sherriff's classic WW1 drama. Light refreshments provided—donations welcome!

This week

Art and the Bible Story takes place on Tuesday, 10.30, in the Hall annexe.

There will be a concert on Friday, 12.30pm with music for Clarinet, Piano & Voice with Tricia Troughton, John Marsh & David Drury. Retiring collection for the Friends of St Andrew's.

A Health Care workers group will meet on Saturday, 10-11am, at St Andrew's Hall. This is a new group for anyone who works in health care; doctors, nurses, allied health care professionals, porters.... The group will be an opportunity to meet together over coffee and pastries, to support each other, to do a short bible study and to pray with and for each other. For more information, please see Kathryn.

Next Sunday...

...we will be celebrating Harvest Festival. You are invited to bring food items that will be distributed to the Cambridge Foodbank, Jimmy's Nightshelter and WinterComfort.

The collection will be for A Rocha, a Christian charity working for the protection and restoration of the natural world. We had a Gift Day for A Rocha a few weeks ago and are continuing to raise more money next week for this important cause. After the service there will be coffee, followed by a bring-and-share lunch in the Hall, starting at around 12.30pm. Everyone is very welcome. Please sign up on the sheet at the back to say what you are planning to contribute to the lunch. Many thanks.

Coming up...

The Friends of St Andrew's Autumn Sale and Afternoon Tea will be held on Saturday 13 October, 2pm-4pm, in St Andrew's Hall. Stalls include: cakes, plants, bric-a-brac, raffle. Refreshments available. Free Admission. Stalls are available for hire—please ask John Reynolds or Patricia Abrey for details. Donations of saleable items welcome.

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 6 November, at 8 pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing The Music Shop by Rachel Joyce. It follows record-shop owner Frank, who has a rare gift for music therapy: he can find the perfect piece to remedy any emotional or psychological woes his customers are suffering from. According to a review in the Observer, it 'hits all the right notes'. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

New Reminder: The Parish weekend is booked for 3-5 May 2019. Please put the date in your diaries now. Booking forms will be available in November.

St Andrew's News

New Thank you to everyone who came to the Macmillan Coffee morning on Monday. The sum of £154.97 was raised for Macmillan Cancer Support.

Jean Jackson

Huge thanks to everyone who came to the breakfast for Azul Wasi and to all who helped to make it such an enjoyable occasion. The magnificent sum of £452.60 (incl Gift Aid) was raised.

New St Andrew's Church, Soham (Eleanor Whalley's church) is seeking a Heritage Project Co-ordinator (2 days a week) with experience of community activities and events in a museum, heritage or local community setting. The Heritage Project Co-ordinator will co-ordinate, deliver and evaluate St Andrew's Church's 'Keeping the water out and bringing the community in' community engagement project and associated repair work. This project is supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund and aims to complete the first phase of a large programme of urgent repairs to the church building. For more information visit www.sohamandwicken.org.uk or contact the Revd Eleanor Whalley on 01353 725948 sohamvicar@gmail.com

New The Church Urban Fund invites you to a superb event taking place on Saturday 17 November at Great St Mary's, Cambridge which will support the work of CUF. The evening will be brilliantly entertaining as well as a critical moment in CUF's new campaign: Raise Your Voices. Raise Your Voices is a new campaign for 2018 to help raise awareness and funds to support CUF through music-based events around the country. The event in Cambridge will be a wonderful night of music as choirs of all shapes and sizes raise the roof for an excellent cause. There will be performances from the award winning University of Cambridge Gospel Choir, The Tapestry Singers, Cambridge Philharmonic and nationally much-loved a Cappella group The Kings Men. Doors open at 7pm for a 7.30pm start and refreshments will be on
