Today...

...we are celebrating Harvest Festival. Everyone is very welcome to stay for coffee in the hall after the 10am service, followed by a bring-and-share lunch. This evening, at 5.30pm, there will be a service of Choral Evensong for Harvest. Do come along! Help needed: If you are available to help with a car on Monday (to distribute the food gifts), please contact Nick.

This week

There is a PCC meeting on Thursday, 7.30pm, in the Hall annexe.

The Friends of St Andrew's Autumn Sale and Afternoon Tea will be held on Saturday 13 October, 2pm-4pm, in St Andrew's Hall. Stalls include: cakes, plants, bric-a-brac, raffle. Refreshments available. Free admission. Stalls are available for hire—please ask John Reynolds or Patricia Abrey for details. Donations of saleable items welcome.

Coming up...

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 6 November, at 8 pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing The Music Shop by Rachel Joyce. It follows record-shop owner Frank, who has a rare gift for music therapy: he can find the perfect piece to remedy any emotional or psychological woes his customers are suffering from. According to a review in the Observer, it 'hits all the right notes'. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

Reminder: The Parish weekend is booked for 3-5 May 2019. Please put the date in your diaries now. Booking forms will be available in November.

St Andrew's News

New Have you reviewed your regular giving to St Andrew's this year? Many thanks to those who have—and to those who have signed up to be a regular giver. The good news is that our giving has increased by about 2.5% this year; the bad news is that we need another 2.5% to ensure we are not £3,000 adrift by the end of the year. Please pray and consider and be in touch with Simon PJ (see back page for contact details)

Thank you to everyone who came to the Macmillan Coffee morning on Monday. The sum of £154.97 was raised for Macmillan Cancer Support.

St Andrew's Church, Soham (Eleanor Whalley's church) is seeking a Heritage Project Co-ordinator (2 days a week) with experience of community activities and events in a museum, heritage or local community setting. The Heritage Project Co-ordinator will co-ordinate, deliver and evaluate St Andrew's Church's 'Keeping the water out and bringing the community in' community engagement project and associated repair work. This project is supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund and aims to complete the first phase of a large programme of urgent repairs to the church building. For more information visit www.sohamandwicken.org.uk or contact the Revd Eleanor Whalley on 01353 725948 sohamvicar@gmail.com

The Church Urban Fund invites you to a superb event taking place on Saturday 17 November at Great St Mary's, Cambridge which will support the work of CUF. The evening will be brilliantly entertaining as well as a critical moment in CUF's new campaign: Raise Your Voices. Raise Your Voices is a new campaign for 2018 to help raise awareness and funds to support CUF through music-based events around the country. The event in Cambridge will be a wonderful night of music as choirs of all shapes and sizes raise the roof for an excellent cause. There will be performances from the award winning University of Cambridge Gospel Choir, The Tapestry Singers, Cambridge Philharmonic and nationally much-loved a Cappella group The Kings Men. Doors open at 7pm for a 7.30pm start and refreshments will be on sale. Tickets cost £15 plus a booking fee and are available at <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/raise-your-voices-cambridge-tickets-48442937129>
