

Vacancy for Supporter Relations Officer – Part time: Are you interested in joining a team who are equipping Christians to connect their faith with their work and think biblically about issues in society? Jubilee Centre is looking for a reliable and motivated candidate to become our Supporter Relations Officer (25 hours/week). You need to be able to keep careful records, respond to requests and build relationships with a wide range of people. Further details including a job description can be found at <http://www.jubilee-centre.org/vacancy-supporter-relations-officer-part-time/> Closing date: Tuesday 6 November. Interview date: Either Tuesday 13 or Wednesday 14 November

A warm invitation to Making Sense events this term, all at 7pm, at St John's Waterbeach, in the Church Room. There will be opportunities for engagement through questions and group time - plus the refreshments. The sessions are as follows: 28 October: The Revd Professor Steve Walton, Making Sense of Luke; 11 November: Josh Harris, Making Sense of the Church and Politics; 25 November: Dr Stephen Backhouse, Making Sense of Philippians.

Items for potential inclusion in the next pewsheet should be sent to admin@ by Wednesday please.

If you would like a copy of the notice sheet e-mailed to you, please send an e-mail request to admin@.

ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

21 October 2018

Welcome to St Andrew's Church for our Family Service, during which Archie Bakewell is being baptised. Afterwards there will be a short Communion service with an opportunity for anointing and to receive prayer for healing. Everyone is very welcome to come to the Hall after the service, where coffee will be served. Tonight, at 5.30pm, there will be an Informal service with worship band (also including prayers for healing). Do come along!

We have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

'Upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed.'

This week

Please note that there is no Church Mice this week due to the half term holiday.

The next Flower Group meeting is on Friday, 2pm, in St Andrews Hall. The arrangement for this month is Autumn Colours.

There will be lunchtime concert on Saturday, 12.30pm, in the church. This will be a violin recital by Eugenie Dalglish. All welcome! Retiring collection for the Friends of St Andrews.

On Sunday at 4pm we will be holding an all-age Message in Movies at St Andrew's Hall. We will be showing DreamWorks' The Prince of Egypt (running time 1 hr 35 mins) with snacks and refreshments available. All ages are welcome, please invite any friends you would like to bring with you. There will also be Junior church in the morning.

Coming up...

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 6 November, at 8pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing The Music Shop by Rachel Joyce. It follows record-shop owner Frank, who has a rare gift for music therapy: he can find the perfect piece to remedy any emotional or psychological woes his customers are suffering from. According to a review in the Observer, it 'hits all the right notes'. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

New The youth group will be hosting a Family Quiz to raise money for charity on Saturday 24 November, 6-8pm, at St Andrew's Hall. Tickets cost £8 for adults and £4 for children and will include a chilli supper. Sign up as a team or form one on the night (up to 6 people). Please speak to Maggie Tate if you would like to buy tickets.

Reminder: The Parish weekend is booked for 3-5 May 2019. Please put the date in your diaries now. Booking forms will be available in November.

St Andrew's News

New St Andrew's Fayre will take place in the Hall on Saturday 1 December from 1 - 4 pm. This will be followed by a concert in the Church by soloists and groups from Chesterton Community College performing a mixture of festive and non-festive repertoire. For more information, or to book a stall at the Fayre please email info@standrews-hall.co.uk. We look forward to seeing you there.

Rachel

New The Open Mind coach trip to The London Charterhouse which was previously pencilled in for November will now be taking place in the new year. Details of this trip will be available in the next edition of the Chesterton News.

We are planning to mark the World War I Commemoration by producing a display in church. You are invited to bring labelled photos and other memorabilia that can be used as part of this display: please speak to Kathryn or Jeanne.

Bishop Stephen will be conducting a Confirmation service here at St Andrew's on Sunday 3 March 2019 at 10am. We will be running a weekly group in preparation for confirmation which will probably take place on Thursday evenings (to be confirmed). If you haven't been confirmed and would like to be, then please speak to Kathryn or Nick.

The PCC (church council) met a week ago Thursday to begin considering our strategic objectives for 2019, to hear about the work of the wholeness and healing prayer group, to hear progress on the organ refurbishment project and to discuss the maintenance of our war graves. The council decided to make permanent the usual time of 5.30pm for evening services.

Have you reviewed your regular giving to St Andrew's this year? Many thanks to those who have—and to those who have signed up to be a regular giver. The good news is that our giving has increased by about 2.5% this year; the bad news is that we need another 2.5% to ensure we are not £3,000 adrift by the end of the year. Please pray and consider and be in touch with Simon PJ (see back page for contact details).

Other News

Susan and Peter Hilken, Pauline Davison and Keith Brown, will be giving readings of four Victorian poets in Michaelhouse, Trinity Street, on Fridays in November: Robert Browning (2nd November), Alfred Tennyson (9th), Christina Rossetti (16th), Gerard Manley Hopkins (23rd). All readings start at 1.15pm, and last about half an hour, followed by discussion. Donations to Michaelhouse.
