ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

4 November 2018

Welcome to St Andrew's Church on All Saints Sunday. Everyone is very welcome to come to the Hall after the 10am service, where coffee will be served. This afternoon, at 4pm, there will be our annual Time to Remember service, followed by tea. You are invited to bring flowers to lay in our 'garden of remembrance' in front of the altar; names of loved ones (as requested) are read out during the service.

We have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

'And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever.'

at 4pm will be our annual All Soulstide Time to Remember service, followed by tea. You are invited to bring flowers to lay in our 'garden of remembrance' in front of the altar; names of loved ones (as requested) are read out during the service.

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday, 8pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, tel. 367351). We will be discussing The Music Shop by Rachel Joyce. It follows record-shop owner Frank, who has a rare gift for music therapy: she can find the perfect piece to remedy any emotional or psychological woes his customers are suffering from. According to a review in the Observer, it 'hits all the right notes'. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

On Saturday there will be a Requiem Eucharist service at 5.30pm, which will include New Voices singing the setting of the Requiem by Maurice Duruflé.

Next Sunday...

is Remembrance Sunday, when we will be holding a Remembrance Service at 10am, followed by coffee in the Hall during which we will have a live screening of the Armistice events in London. At 12.30pm our bells will be rung to join in with the national peal of bells.

Coming up...

New The funeral of Barbara Hilton will be on Tuesday 13 November, 10.45am, at Cambridge Crematorium (East Chapel).

The youth group will be hosting a Family Quiz to raise money for charity on Saturday 24 November, 6-8pm, at St Andrew's Hall. Tickets cost £8 for adults and £4 for children and will include a chilli supper. Sign up as a team or form one on the night (up to 6 people). Please speak to Maggie Tate if you would like to buy tickets.

New 'Thinking our Faith' returns on Sunday 25 November at 5.30pm (Hall annexe). Naomi Wormell, Old Testament Tutor at Westcott House, will be giving us a scholarly view of the prophet we've been reading since September— Isaiah—the fifth evangelist? Come and explore the historical background and the message of Isaiah for his and our day. [N.B. Our daily readings from now and into Advent are from Isaiah—see opposite.]

St Andrew's Fayre will take place in the Hall on Saturday 1 December from 1 - 4 pm. This will be followed by a concert in the Church by soloists and groups from Chesterton Community College, performing a mixture of festive and non-festive repertoire. For more information, or to book a stall at the Fayre, please email info@standrews-hall.co.uk. We look forward to seeing you there.

St Andrew's News

We are planning to mark the World War I Commemoration by producing a display in church. You are invited to bring labelled photos and other memorabilia that can be used as part of this display: please speak to Kathryn or Jeanne.

Reminder: The Parish weekend is booked for 3-5 May 2019. Please put the date in your diaries now. Booking forms will be available in November.

The Open Mind coach trip to The London Charterhouse which was previously pencilled in for November will now be taking place in the new year. Details of this trip will be available in the next edition of the Chesterton News.

Bishop Stephen will be conducting a Confirmation service here at St Andrew's on Sunday 3 March 2019 at 10am. We will be running a weekly group in preparation for confirmation which will probably take place on Thursday evenings (to be confirmed). If you haven't been confirmed and would like to be, then please speak to Kathryn or Nick.

Have you reviewed your regular giving to St Andrew's this year? Many thanks to those who have—and to those who have signed up to be a regular giver. The good news is that our giving has increased by about 2.5% this year; the bad news is that we need another 2.5% to ensure we are not £3,000 adrift by the end of the year. Please pray and consider and be in touch with Simon PJ (see back page for contact details).

Mission & Giving update

A few weeks ago, a team of 11 from our youth group and church spent the afternoon clearing a garden for a family in Chesterton. The project was organised through a local charity, The Besom which provides a bridge between those who want to give time, money, things or skills and those who are in need. We also made a contribution to the work of Besom through our PCC Mission and Giving committee and one member of the group donated several pairs of gardening gloves to the equipment stock, which were very well received! This is our third Besom project as a church and we hope to do another in 2019.

Other News

New Nick and others from St Andrew's will be leading a Taizé Eucharist at St Clement's, Bridge Street, on Friday at 7.30pm

Susan and Peter Hilken, Pauline Davison and Keith Brown will be giving readings of four Victorian poets in Michaelhouse, Trinity Street, on Fridays in November: Robert Browning (2nd November), Alfred Tennyson (9th), Christina Rossetti (16th), Gerard Manley Hopkins (23rd). All readings start at 1.15pm, and last about half an hour, followed by discussion. Donations to Michaelhouse.

On 18th November at 6.30pm in Ely Cathedral, Ely, the trust is holding one of its Saying Goodbye services. This service is for anyone who has either personally lost a baby at any stage of pregnancy, at birth or in early years, or who has been affected by a family member's or friend's loss. Whether the loss was recent or 80 years ago, everyone is welcome to attend. We have also extended the services, and gladly welcome anyone who is grieving the fact that they haven't had children. This may be due to circumstance, infertility or for other
