13 January 2019

Welcome to St Andrew's. This morning we will begin to learn a new musical setting for the Communion service (New Voices will be leading the way...). Everyone is welcome to stay for coffee in the hall afterwards. There will be a service of Quiet Communion this evening at 5.30pm.

We have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

Members of the Wholeness and healing prayer group are available for prayer; those who would like to be prayed for and with, or are seeking prayer for someone else, are invited to join them at the back of church after receiving communion.

Next Sunday...

Our Family Service will include a special welcome and prayer for those preparing to get married at St Andrew's this year.

We will also be welcoming one of the pastors (part of a visiting delegation) from the Nordkirche (the Lutheran Church in North Germany—which is linked with the Diocese of Ely).

Coming up...

If you are (relatively) new to St Andrew's, we would love to invite you for a glass of sherry (or fruit juice) to meet members of the leadership team as well as other newcomers and to hear a little about the life and vision of St Andrew's—that's on Sunday 27 January, 11.45am, in the Church.

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 5 February, 8pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, Tel. 367351). We will be discussing A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles. It tells the story of a Russian aristocrat living under house arrest in a luxury hotel for 30 years, during the time of Stalin. As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

St Andrew's News

Thank you to everyone who helped make Christmas so special at St Andrew's—those who cleaned and decorated the church, singers and musicians who filled it with lovely singing, sidespeople and candle-scrappers, Christingle makers and tree decorators, readers and intercessors, youth and children's leaders—and to all the church and hall staff.

Nick

There are still quite a few Christmas cards in the pigeonholes at the back of church—it's worth checking even if they're a little early for 2019....

Record crowds came to the Community carols this year—and to the High-Wired festive show that followed. And we also raised a record amount via the bucket collection for WinterComfort—£867.53!

Other news

New Food4Food will not be holding a pop up cafe here at St Andrew's Hall in January. The next event will be Tuesday 19 February from 12noon to 2pm. If you would be interested in receiving updates directly from Wintercomfort about the pop ups please send an email to Rachel Newell, rachelnewell@wintercomfort.org.uk Cambridge Szeged Society with Cambridge Folk Club invites you to come and be thrilled by the wonderful traditional Hungarian sounds of Méntes Masként on Friday 18 January, 8pm, at the Golden Hind, Milton Road, Cambridge. The support artist is James Eisner (vocals, lute & guitar). Also on Saturday 19 January, 1.30pm at Lee Hall, Wolfson College, Cambridge.

The annual ecumenical service organized by Cambridge City Centre Churches Forum for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity will take place at Great St Mary's on Sunday 20 January at 4pm. Dr. Joe Aldred, Bishop in the Church of God of Prophecy and staff member for Pentecostal and Multicultural Relations at Churches Together in Britain & Ireland, will be preaching. A facebook event page is at <https://www.facebook.com/events/2114490708861351/>, and a poster is on the noticeboard.

The Pembroke Singers are now recruiting. Our choir is a friendly choir based in the centre of Cambridge, at Pembroke College in Trumpington Street. Rehearsals: every Thursday evening from 7:30 to 9:15, for three 10-week terms in the college chapel. Our Director, James Dougal, is an enthusiastic musician and mathematician. The repertoire covers a range from classical to close harmony arrangements and show tunes. We give two concerts a year in the Christmas and Easter terms. Our concerts are sometimes given with the Pembroke College Choir, or other college ensembles.
