

who we are and what we do. “Inspired by Jean Vanier’s L’Arche communities, Lyn’s House offers a model of integration and accompaniment of each other where all learn, all give and all meld their God-given gifts and talents, their strengths and vulnerabilities into a communion of tender care for one another. Is this not what a loving God asks of us and guides us to? Find the answer in these wonderful pages.” (Mary McAleese, President of Ireland (1997-2011) and Professor of Children, Law and Religion, University of Glasgow) RSVP, by 6 November if you can, to: barbara_smith55@hotmail.com

ST ANDREW’S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

3 November 2019

Welcome to St Andrew’s Church on All Saints Sunday. Coffee will be served in church after the service.

This evening, at 4pm, there will be our annual Time to Remember service, followed by tea, to which all are very welcome!

Please ask a sidesperson at the back for access to the toilet.

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew’s, please fill in one of the ‘Welcome’ cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

We have gluten-free wafers available for Communion—please speak to one of the sidespeople at the back.

‘Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.’

Today...

Please join us at 4pm for our annual All Soulside Time to Remember at 4pm, followed by tea. You are invited to bring flowers to lay in our 'garden of remembrance' in front of the altar; names of loved ones (as requested) are read out during the service.

This week

The Religious Poetry Group meets on Tuesday, 10.30 am to noon, in the Hall annexe. Please note that this group has reached capacity, and unfortunately we won't be able to accept any more people. The course could be repeated at a future date, if there is a demand for it.

On Saturday there will be a Requiem Eucharist service at 5.30pm, which will include New Voices singing the setting of the Requiem by Gabriel Fauré.

Next Sunday...

is Remembrance Sunday when we will be holding a Remembrance Service at 10am concluding with the Act of Remembrance at the war memorial.

Coming up...

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 12 November, 8pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, Tel. 367351). We will be discussing My Name is Lucy Barton by Elizabeth Strout. It's quite a short story about a hospital visit that 'becomes a portal to the tender relationship between mother and daughter' (New York Times). As always, new and occasional members are most welcome.

New Please join us on Saturday 23 November for St Andrew's Family Quiz.

The Quiz will be starting at 6:30 pm with a break for dessert, teas and coffees halfway through the evening. Please bring a dessert to share. The Quiz is a fundraiser for Besom and Youth for Christ. Sign yourself, your team or your family up after church. If you have any questions please email connor.kennedy@standrews-chesterton.org

St Andrew's Fayre will be on Saturday 30 November, 1-4pm, in the Hall. There will be a wide range of seasonal gifts available alongside tea, coffee, mulled wine and lots of homemade cakes. Children's activities, including face painting and Christmas crafts will be available in the Annexe. The Fayre will be followed at 4.30pm by a concert in the Church given by soloists and groups from Chesterton Community College performing a mixture of festive and non-festive repertoire. All Welcome.

St Andrew's News

New We are pleased to welcome Bec Wilkinson, an ordinand from Westcott House, who will be on placement with us at St Andrew's Chesterton. Bec will be required to reflect on her experiences at St Andrew's as part of her academic work. Bec's work will be marked and seen only by examiners. All names and identifying details will be changed. If you have concerns about this, please contact Nick Moir.

New We are sad to report that Philip White died on Tuesday at the Arthur Rank Hospice. Philip's involvement with St Andrew's goes back before the memory of most us; in recent years he has been Treasurer of the Friends and (with Margaret) almost single-handedly cared for the churchyard. His funeral will be here on Thursday 21 November at 1.30pm.

Other news

New The Eastern Region Ministry Course seeks to appoint an Administrator (.8 FTE) starting on 6th January 2020 or as soon as possible thereafter. You are invited to a Faiths Partnership meeting on Climate Justice with speakers from Greenpeace and Extinction Rebellion on Wednesday 13 November, 5.30-7.30pm, at Beth Shalom Synagogue, Auckland Road, Cambridge, CB5 8DW. To book please send the name of each person who would like to attend to: Ari Henry: Ariadne.henry@cambridge.gov.uk or phone 01223 457876

Saying Goodbye, (part of the Mariposa Trust) are returning to Ely Cathedral on Sunday 17 November, 6.30pm with another Baby loss support remembrance and support service. The Mariposa Trust is one of the UK's leading charities, with its core objective being to support people who have lost babies at any stage of pregnancy, at birth, or in infancy. The service is for anyone who has either personally lost a baby at any stage of pregnancy, at birth or in early years, or who has been affected by a family members or friend's loss. Whether the loss was recent or 80 years ago, everyone is welcome to attend. We have also extended the services, and gladly welcome anyone who is grieving the fact
