Weekly news update 28 August 2020:

Please pray for:

- The continuing organ and chancel works – nearing completion
- Our new pattern of services for September
- Children and teachers returning to school this week and next
- The sick: including Lizzie St George
- RIP Valerie Taylor, Jill Rahmann and Patrick Allen, and from the Book of Remembrance, Joy Ashton Hunt

Weekly news update 4 September 2020:

We have heard this week that Anne Bromley has died. Anne has been in Bramley Court for the past few years but before that was a regular member of the congregation. Her funeral at the crematorium – like all others – will be restricted in size, but the plan is for her ashes to be buried alongside those of her husband Leonard in the churchyard.

Please pray for:

- The continuing organ and chancel works – nearing completion
- Our new pattern of services for September
- Children and teachers returning to school
- The sick: including Lizzie St George
- RIP Valerie Taylor, Patrick Allen, Zena Galbraith, Anne Bromley and from the Book of Remembrance, Mavis Brown, Arthur Patrick Humberstone, Dorothy Humberstone and Carole Norma Reed

Next Sunday (13 September) we will be 'celebrating the churchyard' in both 10am and 11am services. The 10am All-Age service will be livestreamed only, at 11am there is Holy Communion in church, and at 5.30pm everyone is welcome to join a 'Thinking our Faith' special on the theme of our churchyard on Zoom.

There is a churchyard working party on Saturday 12 September from 10.30am onwards when much fun will be had - please bring secateurs, gloves and rakes if you have them.

And lastly, there was another mistake in my last email from Wednesday: On Sunday 20 September the 5.30pm service (Contemplative Communion) will be in church, and the 10am All-Age service will be livestreamed only. I think I am slowly getting my head around it now!
