Weekly news update 23 December 2020:

Please pray for:

- Clergy, musicians, and all preparing for our Christmas and Epiphany services
- The homeless and those providing support to them in Cambridge
- Those not able to spend time as planned with loved ones and family
- The sick: including Lizzie St George, Rachel Hellen and Eric Burbridge
- From the Book of Remembrance: Edith Ling, Arthur Smith, Edward Ling, Donald Hilton, Sarah Guerry and Lily Stanley

Church opening hours:

From today until Christmas Eve the church will be open between 3-5pm when you can visit the crib and for private prayer. From Boxing Day onwards the church will be open between 10am and 4pm.

Christmas Services

When coming to the Christmas services, please help us keep you and everyone safe by arriving in good time (at least 5 minutes beforehand, preferably 10-15 minutes beforehand), maintaining social distance and being prepared to queue outside as directed by a sidesperson.

Epiphany Services

On Sunday 3 January there will be two services: Holy Communion (BCP) at 8am (livestreamed and in church) and All-Age Communion for Epiphany at 10am (livestreamed and in church). On Wednesday 6 January at 7.30pm we will have a Zoom Epiphany service.

All services in church are subject to the government regulations - please do check the website in the event of a change being announced.

Please note there will be no Morning Prayer (via Google Meet) from Monday 28 December to Friday 1 January. Morning Prayer will resume again on Monday 4 January at 8.30am.
