Weekly news update 21 May 2021:

'When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place.' So begins the Pentecost story in Acts 2. This Sunday we will be celebrating Pentecost - and although we won't all be physically together, there is still the opportunity to gather together in worship both in-person and online. At 10am we will be meeting in the churchyard (or the church if raining!) for a celebratory service of All-Age Communion which will also be livestreamed to our YouTube channel so you can watch from home if you prefer. We're looking forward to seeing you there!

Find more details of this and other services, news, and messages below.

This Sunday 23 May

8am Holy Communion (BCP) (livestreamed and in church, no need to book)

10am All-Age Communion in the churchyard, to celebrate Pentecost (churchyard and livestreamed). You need to reserve a space to come to this service in-person: you can do that by clicking here, or by phoning Rachel. This helps us to manage numbers in the churchyard (and ensures that we can move safely inside the church if raining!). Please wear something red, and bring some ribbon, a flag, or something colourful to wave - as well as something to sit on. You can bring a picnic rug or chair; if you are unable to bring your own seat, contact Rachel to request a chair from church. Further information about coming to this service in-person, including the wet-weather plan, can be found here, and will also be emailed to you when you book your place.

5.30pm Evening Prayer (online only).

Please pray for...

Rhiannon and Alex Coke-Woods' new baby, Erin.

From the book of remembrance: May Alice Annie Dazeley

RIP: Peter Welham

Peter's Welham's funeral is taking place on 4 June, 2pm, in the West Chapel at Cambridge City Crematorium. Those who would like to are welcome to come to the funeral.

Next Sunday 30 May

8am Holy Communion (BCP) (livestreamed and in church, no need to book)

10am Zoom Church @10 for families and children (Zoom only; link requested from Hannah and on next week's families/youth emails)

11am Zoom Church @11 for everyone else! (Zoom only; link requested from Nick and on next week's email)

5:30pm Holy Communion (in church, no need to book)

Other News

Lunchtime Concert in the Church: Friday 28th May. 12.30pm. Come along to a Cello and Violin Recital by members of the Piatti Quartet. Admission free, with a retiring Collection for The Friends of St Andrew's and Musicians Expenses.

Alleluia for Azul Wasi – a short virtual concert by St Andrew's musicians.

During the lockdowns we had to think of new ways to raise money for the Azul Wasi fund. David Drury, Annemarie Federle, Florrie, Rachel and Will Harmer, Catherine Morley, Helen Orr and Chris Pountain all recorded musical items at home and so we would like to invite you to their short virtual concert (about 35 minutes), given by these talented musicians from St Andrew's Church. You can watch the concert here: <https://youtu.be/Wpd7dvNxZNg>

We hope you will enjoy the music and photos in the video. If you feel able to do so, you can support the fund for the food costs at Azul Wasi via the St Andrew's Church website (<https://www.standrews-chesterton.org/azulwasi>). If you prefer to make a cheque donation (or cash if this isn't possible) this can be left with Rachel Clarke at the office in St Andrew's Hall, in an envelope labelled 'Azul Wasi concert' and adding your name if you wish Gift Aid to be applied. Cheques need to be made out to St Andrew's Chesterton PCC.

Thank you

Pentecost Churchyard trail, 25-27 May

Next Tuesday-Thursday, there will be a Pentecost trail in the churchyard! Organised by Lesley, the trail is mainly aimed at families with children but anyone can follow it. There will be posters up with things to think about and do. Please be careful as you walk around the churchyard to make sure that you don't trip over anything!

Ely Cathedral Passes

Having been in touch with the Cathedral I have been told that for various reasons they are not currently renewing or issuing passes at this time. However, for the moment, anyone who has an existing pass, even if out of date, may still use that. Anybody else who would qualify need only speak to the staff on the door of the Cathedral, and they will be admitted free of charge. As soon as this changes I will let you know.
