Weekly news update 2 July 2021:

This Sunday is 'Thank You Day', a day set aside this year to pause for thankfulness for all that has sustained us through the pandemic. To mark this occasion, we will be gathering for a short All-Age service at 10am, in the church. Following this there will be a pause in the middle of the service, in which you can choose to stay for a short Communion service in the church, or leave at that point. You don't need to book a space: bring yourself, and something that symbolises thankfulness to you.

For more details, see below and in July's Chimes.

Lorna and Derek thank the many friends at St Andrew's who have sent cards and letters of sympathy and assurance of prayers at the death of their son Simon.

This Sunday 4 July

8am Holy Communion (BCP) (in church and livestreamed; no need to book)

10am All-Age Service, with Communion. The first part of this service will be an All-Age service in the church and livestreamed: you do not need to book a space, just come along. You're also invited to bring something - an object, word, picture... - that symbolises thankfulness for you, particularly through this last year. The All-Age service will be followed by a short pause, during which you can choose to stay for a short service of Holy Communion in the church only, or leave.

5:30pm Evening Prayer (in church and on Zoom; no need to book)

Please pray for...

Joan Andrews, and Rhiannon and Alex Coke-Woods' baby, Erin.

From the book of remembrance: Frederick Josiah Williams

RIP: David Chapman, Bob Mackenzie, Mervyn Ling, Simon Dazeley, Katharine Free

Next Sunday 11 July

8am Holy Communion (BCP) (in church and livestreamed; no need to book)

10am Cafe and Zoom Church (in the Hall 'Cafe' and on Zoom), particularly for families and children. Get in touch with Hannah if you would like to come along in-person - where there'll be a table with activities for you and your family, the chance to enjoy the church service together in-person (and maybe to sing our final song outdoors), and an opportunity to catch up and chat in the Hall garden after the service! We'd love to see you there.
