Weekly news update 23 July 2021:

Join us this Sunday for Holy Communion at 8am or 10am - or our last service of Cafe and Zoom Church, for families and children, before the summer also at 10am! Find details and links below.

Following the change in restrictions on Monday 19 July there will be some changes to our COVID protocols but these will be gradual and we will flag up beforehand when any changes will be made. Our priority is for everyone to feel safe and to know how we intend to do that. Please see the new Chimes for full details, but changes you will notice this week:

- It is not a legal requirement to wear a face mask in church but for the time being we are still strongly encouraging it.
- There is no requirement to socially distance in church but we would encourage everyone only to sit near others with their explicit agreement. For the time being alternate pews will remain roped off.
- Congregational singing is now permitted and we will be singing three hymns and the Communion setting at the 10am service on Sunday (but with face masks on, please!)
- Arrangements for receiving Communion will remain the same until we review this in September (when we will consider how to restore receiving communion in both kinds).

The August edition of the Chesterton Chimes is also available here.

This Sunday 25 July

10am Holy Communion (in the church and livestreamed; no need to book)

10am Cafe and Zoom Church (in the Hall 'Cafe' and on Zoom), particularly for families and children. This is our last Cafe and Zoom Church before the summer, so we'd especially love to see you there, whether from home or Hall!

5:30pm Evening Prayer (in church and on Zoom; no need to book)
