Weekly news update, 24 December 2021

Christmas services are going ahead as planned – but please check the website or church noticeboard for any changes. Don't forget to bring a face mask (now a legal requirement) and be especially careful to use the sanitiser and to keep social distancing where possible. We would ask those who are able to take a lateral flow test before coming to services. Clergy and choir will be following such precautions. Thank you...

We will be sending out a further communication on New Year's Eve.

(N.B. the 8am Communion on 26 December will not be live-streamed).
