Tonight's Epiphany Service is going ahead as planned. Please do come along. As well as the Procession of the Magi we will, as in past years, be participating in the (Methodist-inspired) Renewal of the Covenant – an opportunity to rededicate ourselves in the service of Christ for the coming year. After the service there will be Epiphany cake (courtesy of Ursula) and a glass of madeira (or apple juice).

St Andrew's News

We are very sad to report that Cheryl Birse, a member of our congregation and PCC, died earlier this week – at home and unexpectedly. This has come as a shock to us all but especially, of course, to her daughters (Sally and Polly) and other members of her family. Our prayers are with them.

The funeral of Sylvia Hancock will be on Tuesday 11 January, 3.30pm, at the Crematorium. Sylvia was a faithful member of our parish choir for many years.

On Sunday week we will be having a Gift Day for WinterComfort and hearing more about their work.

On Sunday 23 January our old friend Tricia Troughton will be preaching at the 10am service (for the Week of prayer for Christian Unity).

On Sunday 30 January (when we will be celebrating Candlemas) Dorothy & Simon Peyton-Jones will be telling us about their new involvement and ministry at the pioneering St John's Church in Orchard Park.
