Churchwarden Updates

Thank You - I wanted to thank all of those involved in our 10am Service last Sunday. To John Reynolds and Peter Wadl for leading, and to Ros Moir for her engaging talk. Thank you also to all the brunch helpers, Rachel Harmer, Karen Lee and Linda Stollwerck. And lastly to all of you who came and brought food and shared in the occasion.

We have given instructions for the work to begin on the electric doors but the Church will unfortunately remain locked next week.

The SumUp machine is still not working and may not be ready in time for the collection this week.

There will be a Churchyard Working Party on Saturday, 20 August. Even though everything looks parched and brown, there is still lots of tidying up to be done and a family called Tyrell have asked for their memorial to be made more easily accessible on the Longworth Avenue edge of the churchyard where we started a big clearance last year about this time. It would be good to carry on with that. 9.30 until 12.30 - as ever.

The Monday Coffee Morning will not take place on 22 August (Michael's funeral) or 29 August which is the Bank Holiday Monday. We will begin again on Monday 5 September, 10.45am - 12noon when all are welcome.

Coffee Volunteers Needed - The social coffee time after Sunday service is valued by many. We'd like to go back to having it every week starting in September, but we'll need more volunteers. Might you be willing to help? If you're not confident, we can match you up to assist someone who is. To sign up or ask questions, get in touch with Emily at emily.winslow.stark@gmail.com Thank you!

Vigil for Ukraine - Prayers for Peace - The weekly hour of prayer for Ukraine continues every Wednesday from 5.00 to 6.00 pm. Please drop in for as long as you wish. There will be prayer resources available in the south aisle for all other times when the church is open.
